Firing Stops Under Truce In Indochina

Hostilities Concluded In North Viet Nam; 4 Others Will Follow

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — The French and the Vietminh ordered firing stopped in part of Indochina today — 7 years, 7 months and 8 days after Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh's rebel legions attacked Hanoi.

The truce negotiated at the Geneva conference became effective in North Viet Nam and its rich Red River delta at 8 a.m. (8 p.m., EST, yesterday).

Cease-Fire Staggered

The armistice is scheduled to spread gradually over the four other sectors of the war-ravaged Southeast Asia land, becoming effective on Aug. 1 in Central Viet Nam, Aug. 6 in Laos, Aug. 7 in Cambodia and Aug. 11 in South Viet Nam.

Hanoi's big guns roared sporadically throughout the night before the cease-fire became effective and the Vietminh kept up pressure on outlying posts manned by Vietnamese units. In recent days the Reds have concentrated on such posts in an apparent effort to encourage desertions and prevent the native troops from moving south with the departing French.

There were no early reports, however, of any large-scale fights in the last hours before the truce time.

There was no certainty that the killing and wounding had stopped in North Viet Nam.

Truce Shaky

This was a cease-fire, not a signed peace.

Mines sowed along the roads and paths and in the rice fields may take their toll for months.

No one could be certain that all the thousands of Communist-led Vietminh guerrillas or all the irregulars loyal to the French-supported Viet Nam government had received the stop-fighting word or would obey it.

Many observers believe it will be a matter of only two to four years before communism engulfs all of Viet Nam and perhaps Laos and Cambodia as well.

The cease-fire agreement provides for internationally supervised elections in July 1956 to unify Viet Nam. The French commander in the North, Gen. Rene Cogny, said recently he believed South Viet Nam could be defended militarily against the Reds, but he only shrugged when asked about the political prospects. Many French civilian officials here share Cogny's doubts of the future.

Troops To Evacuate

With the cease-fire, Cogny turned his effort to the mammoth task of moving his thousands of French and Vietnamese troops from their shrunken sector of the northern delta to the southern holding left to the Viet Nam government headed by ex-Emperor Bao Dai.

The Vietminh were expected to take control rapidly of the territory being evacuated.

The first phases of the military withdrawal began with the armistice hour. Companies began falling back to their battalion headquarters areas in preparation for a progressive withdrawal to the port of Haiphong.

By Aug. 11 Cogny must have soldiers and civilians being evacuated from north, west and south of Hanoi massed in a 10-mile zone around the North Indochina capital, once the official seat of French power in the Far East.

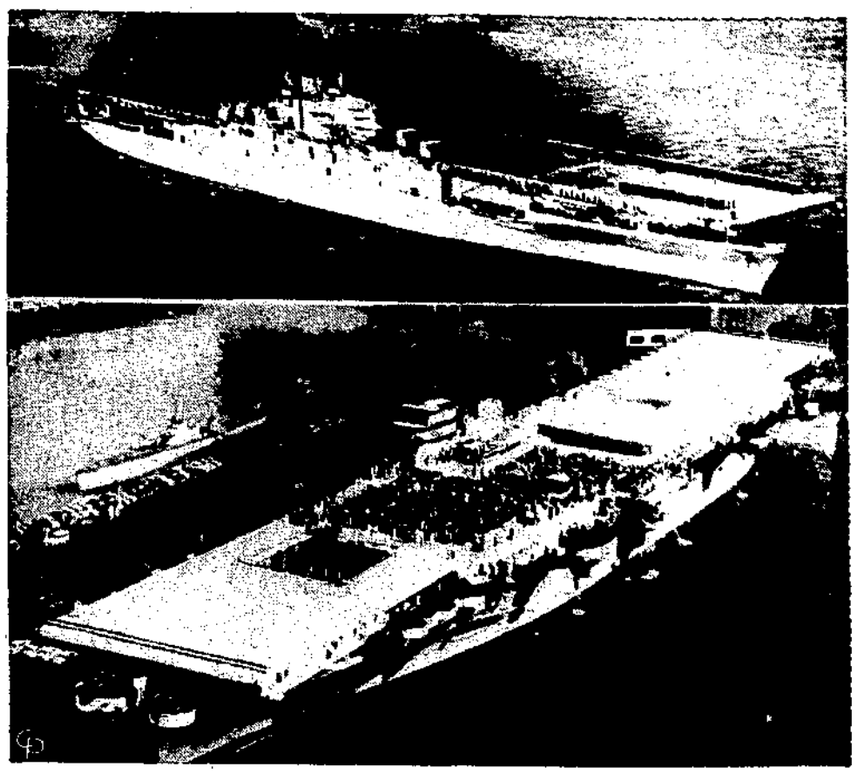
TALKS WITH IKE

WASHINGTON (AP) — John E. Henderson, Cambridge, Ohio, attorney seeking election to Congress from Ohio's 15th District, yesterday visited President Eisenhower at the White House. He said the President wished him good luck in the election. Henderson is the Republican nominee for the seat being vacated by Rep. Robert T. Secrest, a Democrat recently appointed to the Federal Trade Commission.

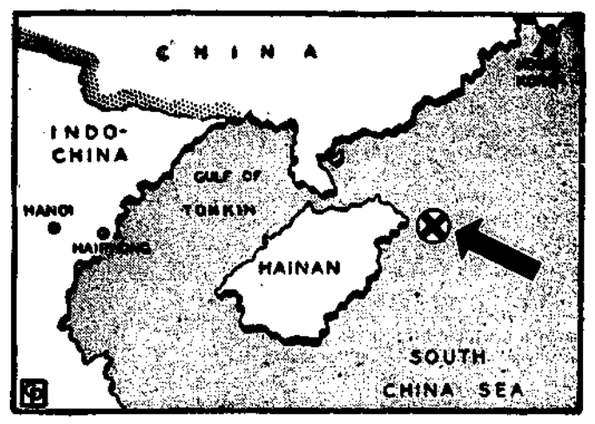
Navy Fighters Patrol Sea Off Hainan; Firm Protest Note Sent to Red Chinese



U.S. CARRIERS ON PATROL NEAR REDS' HAINAN. Two U.S. Navy aircraft carriers are shown patrolling the China Sea area just off the coast of the Communist island stronghold of Hainan. The ships are (upper) the Philippine Sea and the Hornet. The ships were sent to the area to search for survivors of a British airliner shot down last Friday by Communist planes. Red China admitted its planes shot down the passenger liner.

LOWER LEFT, Adm. Felix Stump, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, at a Pentagon news conference says U.S. fliers are under orders to be "quick on the trigger" if a hostile pass is made at them. "You don't have to wait and get your head blown off to shoot back," was his comment.

LOWER RIGHT: This map shows where a British four-engine Hong Kong-bound airliner was "wantonly" shot down (cross) by two Red Chinese fighter planes off the Chinese island of Hainan. Nine of the 18 passengers aboard the craft were rescued but one died later.



Blast Peiping For Brutality Of Air Attack

Immediate Halt in Firing on U.S., British Airplanes Demanded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has dispatched to Communists China a sharply worded demand for an immediate halt to Red plane attacks against American and British aircraft.

Diplomatic officials reported the stiff note was given to Britain to relay to the Red China regime as a follow up to the weekend clashes over the South China Sea.

Denounces Brutality

The note, it was said, denounced the "brutality" of the Chinese Communists in shooting down a British commercial airliner Friday and later belligerent attempts to interfere with rescue operations by American mercy planes.

In London, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told Parliament that Britain already has the American note for relay to the Red Chinese.

He said:

"I have been requested to instruct our charge d'affaires in Peiping to convey a protest to the Chinese government on behalf of the United States government both in respect of the six U. S. citizens killed and wounded in the British airliner and the wanton interference with search and rescue operations in the area of the incident."

Warning Message Sent

Eden also revealed that about an hour after the British airliner was shot down on Friday the Red Chinese sent a message warning that any waplanes sent to search would be fired on if they approached land.

He described this message as "against all international custom and behavior" and said Britain was making a further protest.

Tokyo monitors reported that the Chinese Communist radio had announced the Peiping government was lodging a "grave protest" over the shooting down of two Red Planes off Hainan Island Sunday by U. S. Navy aircraft.

A statement issued by Vice Foreign Minister Chang Han - Fu, claimed the American planes violated Chinese skies in shooting down the planes.

Open Sea Attack

The United States insists the Red planes attacked over the open sea.

At the capitol, it was disclosed that the senate foreign relations committee had asked Secretary of State Dulles to appear for a closed-door session at 4 p.m., EDT. It

Charter Rapped in Council, Then Ordered Put on Ballot

Proposal Rejected At First Following Official's Blast

An ordinance to place the question of adoption of a proposed Marion City Charter on the November ballot was first turned down, then adopted by City Council at its meeting last night. It was one of two ordinances adopted concerning the proposed charter.

The ordinance providing for submission of the charter question to the voters at first failed to win a majority vote following a talk against the charter by City Solicitor George Piacentino.

HE SAID he felt he must make some remarks concerning the proposed charter, not as the city solicitor, but as a citizen of the city.

"The net effect of the charter is to set up a city manager form of government with the city auditor and city solicitor as appointive rather than elective offices," he said.

"I am directly opposed to the city manager form of government because it eliminates the system of checks and balances now existing," he said.

CHANGING THE city auditor and city solicitor posts into appointive positions would subjugate those officials to the city manager and could prevent them from properly performing their duties, he said.

He added that his office and the city auditor's office sometimes oppose plans of the city administration, and this would not be possible if these two officers were appointed by the manager.

There also has been some misrepresentation concerning the present form of city government, he added. "Contrary to statements by others, the city has had home rule since 1912," he said. Reports from charter commission hearings were that the city does not have home rule, and this is erroneous, he declared.

First Ward Councilman Harold Smith asked what would happen if Council turned down the ordinance to place the issue on the ballot.

PIACENTINO SAID if he were a councilmen, he would vote against the ordinance, but warned

Goodrich Plant Work Goes On, Talks Continue

Members of Union Agree To Stay on Job During Negotiations

A threatened strike against nine B. F. Goodrich Co. plants, including one at Green Camp, failed to materialize last night as union officials agreed to allow their members to work on a day-to-day basis while negotiations for a new contract are continued.

Company officials at the local Goodrich plant reported all workers were on the job this morning. The United Rubber Workers Union agreed to work under terms of the old contract, which expired at midnight last night, until settlement could be reached in negotiations on a new contract.

Talks have been in progress between the company and union for several weeks in Cincinnati. The company has offered a five cents an hour wage increase, while the union is reported to be demanding seven and one-half cents per hour.

The wage talks between Goodrich and the Rubber Workers are only one part of the industry-wide negotiations being held. Workers at the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. plants are now in the third week of their strike against that company.

Officials expect that any agreement reached in the Goodyear dispute will be accepted by other

Sen. McCarthy Defends His Probe Conduct

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) said today he uses "almost an ideal set of rules" to run his investigations, and he voiced "dismay" at the attitude of some of his Republican senatorial critics.

McCarthy's statements were in testimony prepared for a hearing before a Senate Rules subcommittee studying a variety of proposals for revision of the rules for Senate investigations. No action is foreseen this year.

The inquiry got a boost from—but is not based upon—the recent 36-day hearings into McCarthy's row with Army officials.

3,500 Word Statement

In a 3,500-word statement defending himself and the Senate Investigations subcommittee of which he is chairman, McCarthy said:

"I do not believe that any of the allegations aimed at me or at our committee, calculated to prove that we are in effect demanding equal time in (Sic) the White House, is grounded in reason."

McCarthy's critics have contended some of the senator's actions have infringed the functions of the executive department.

McCarthy continued:

"On the other hand, I do believe that Washington is crowded with men and women who look upon Congress as a constitutional nuisance.

Proud of Opposition

"I do believe that the exercise of those (investigative) powers that are inherent in Congress is a plague to those who have a vested interest in concealing their improper activities."

McCarthy told the Rules subcommittee headed by Sen. Jenner (R-Ind) that he is proud of opposition Republican senators raised against former President Truman's executive order in 1948 denying

Hospital Aide To Testify in Sheppard Case

Statement of Girl Contradicts Doctor's, Investigators Report

CLEVELAND (AP) — Miss Susan Hayes, a pretty hospital technician, mentioned prominently in the Sheppard murder investigation, will be flown here from California today, police said.

Deputy Police Inspector James E. McArthur said the 24-year-old woman was expected to arrive here from Los Angeles at 5:50 p. m., EST.

Assistant County Prosecutor Thomas J. Parrino and Detective Robert Schottke, who were sent to probe California angles of the case, will accompany her.

The two investigators said they have a statement from the young woman contradicting some of the testimony given at a coroner's inquest by Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, husband of the murdered Marilyn Sheppard.

Capt. David E. Kerr, head of the police homicide squad, emphasized Miss Hayes was not involved in the brutal murder, but he said she would be questioned extensively about her association with Dr. Sheppard when she worked at suburban Bay Village and when he saw her on a trip to California last March.

Career Soldier Held After Ohio Bank Robbery

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — First Sgt. Anthony Modock, 34, a 14-year Army man, was arraigned here yesterday on a federal bank robbery charge only 2½ hours after Cumberland branch of the Cambridge Central National Bank was robbed of $14,150.

He pleaded innocent and was held under $25,000 bond for a federal grand jury.

State Highway Patrol officers said they found $13,710 in the trunk of a car parked on the farm where Modock was captured. He was at the farm of his brother, Steve Modock, near Buffalo in Guernsey County. The patrol said another $400 was found in the sergeant's pockets.

Sgt. Modock, on leave from Ft. Knox, Ky., is married and the father of three children.

Bank employes said a man entered the bank and asked for a loan, then took the money at gunpoint, and forced four employes into a bank vault.

Board Speeds Plans To Fill School Post

Interviews for the position of Marion city school superintendent will begin within two weeks, Board President Charles Harmon said today.

Harmon said the board hopes to have a new superintendent within the next six weeks. The board began the task of selecting a superintendent last night with a meeting to set up standards and procedures.

The board will select a man who is presently a school superintendent, Harmon said. No written applications have been received as yet but candidates have been mentioned verbally, he said.

Applicants will be screened and possible candidates will be interviewed by the whole board, Harmon said. He said interviews will be by invitation only.

Missing Man's Friend Suicide Victim in Berlin

BERLIN (AP) —An American counterintelligence agent, known to be a friend of missing West German security chief Otto John, has committed suicide in his Berlin quarters, it was learned today.

Fellow officers found the man, a naturalized American with the rank of captain in the Counter-intelligence Corps, mortally wounded in his billet near the American Army hospital last Friday. He was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital.

The Army has withheld announcement of his identity until the family is notified.

Rumors that the agent was being questioned and that he was suspected of disloyalty were flatly denied by U.S. authorities today. A senior officer said a complete inquiry shows the man to be above suspicion.

Officers said the agent had known Dr. John, former chief of the West German Federal Office for Protection of the Constitution, for some time. The agent shot himself the day after John's disappearance in the Soviet sector was made public.

No Unification Without War, Rhee Declares

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Syngman Rhee of South Korea said after a conference with President Eisenhower today that he sees "no possibility of unifying Korea by a peaceful means."

Rhee made the statement to newsmen after the opening session of talks with Eisenhower and other American officials on military and economic problems confronting partitioned Korea.

A reporter asked Rhee whether he and Eisenhower discussed the possibility of resuming the war in Korea. Without saying whether that subject was taken up, the South Korean leader replied:

"We see no possibility of unifying Korea by peaceful means," he said. "I think you all agree on that."

Rhee mentioned the recent Geneva conference on the Far East and the conference at Panmun-

Pilots Report Buzzing

Airliners Report Contact With Jets

HONG KONG (AP)—Three airline pilots reported encounters with jet fighters off Red-held Hainan Island today—two with U.S. planes and the other with unidentified jets.

A Pan American World Airways pilot reported he was "escorted" for a few minutes by four U.S. Navy jets. The airline office here said no request had been made for fighter escort for its planes.

Transports Buzzed

The two other pilots asserted their transports had been buzzed by fighter planes.

Capt. Homib Misty, pilot of an Air India plane which arrived here from Bangkok, reported his craft was buzzed by two United States jets about 80 miles off Hainan at 3:30 p.m.

And Capt. Jack R. Brugger of Paris, pilot of an Air France Constellation, said four unidentified jets buzzed his transport about 100 miles off Hainan.

Brugger described the planes as "the shape and color" of Communist MIG jets.

The incidents occurred in the general area where a British airliner was shot down by Chinese Red fighters Friday with a possible loss of 10 lives, including three Americans.

Saw More Jets

Misty said he "saw two more U.S. jets about six miles away." He estimated his position as 100 miles north of Tourane on the Indochina coast. Misty described the planes as "of a black color."

Brugger said four unidentified jets followed his plane for four minutes and then swooped up on the right side and across the Constellation's nose before they disappeared.

The Air France transport, bound from Saigon to Tokyo with 20 persons aboard, landed safely at Hong Kong's Kaitak Airfield at 1:19 p.m.

Brugger said the fighters were green in color but that he could see no markings. He said they were "definitely not" United States jets.

Brugger said his plane was two hours out of Saigon and flying at 17,000 feet when the four fighters appeared behind him.

The transport continued to Tokyo.

Later Capt. Max C. Weber of Great Barrington, Mass., pilot of a Pan American World Airways transport which arrived here from Bangkok, reported he was "escorted" for a few minutes by four U.S. Navy jet fighters.

Clashes With Sen. Anderson

New Atomic Bill Battle Provoked by Knowland

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Anderson (D-NM) said today that tactics used by Republican Leader Knowland have blown up chances for an early end to the marathon battle over the administration's atomic bill.

"We'll be here to Thanksgiving now," Anderson said.

While he talked with reporters the Senate ground on into a new day in another round-the-clock session. Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) was still firing away with a speech he started last midnight. Morse, in his third marathon talk stint of the atomic dispute, was still going strong with a criticism of the administration's power policy.

Anderson hotly charged that Knowland "promoted a filibuster as hard as he could" by moving to table, and thus kill without debate, an amendment to the controversial legislation which was offered late last night.

Word had been sent to Knowland, before he abruptly cut down Morse's amendment, that he would start "the fur flying" if he made another tabling motion, Anderson said.

Earlier, as dawn was breaking over the Capitol after its fourth

Leader of Czechs Reported Missing

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Czechoslovakia's Communist Premier, Villem Siroky, has been missing from public and political life since mid-June, diplomatic sources here reported today.

The sources said they did not know whether Siroky was sick, whether he was in disafvor or if he might be in Moscow.

Siroky, they said, has not appeared at any public function since the Communist party congress in mid-June. At every public event, his functions have been carried out by Alexej Cepicka, the country's young vice premier and defense minister.

Family of 5 Goes Over Cliff in Auto; 1 Killed, 4 Escape

HARRODSBURG, Ky. (AP)—Mrs. Martha Jane Myers, 30, of Okeana, Butler County, Ohio, died in Haggin Memorial Hospital here yesterday shortly after a traffic accident.

A huge rock shelf jutting from a cliff was credited with saving the lives of four other members of her family.

The woman's husband, Clarence, the driver and their three children, Judith, 10, Jackie, 5, and Steve, 2, were injured.

Myers said the family came here to look for a camp site on Lake Herrington and were inspecting the cliffs in the Brooklyn Bridge area. He said he lost control of the car near Shakertown. The car plunged down a cliff and after rolling about 60 feet came to rest on a rock shelf jutting from the cliff about 150 feet from its base.

A NUPTIAL HIGH MASS in St. Mary Catholic Church Saturday morning solemnized the marriage of Miss Mary Annette Gorton and James T. Lawler.

The pastor, Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, officiated for the 9:30 o'clock ceremony and was the celebrant of the mass sung by St. Mary choir with Mrs. Angelo Doria as organist. Gold vases on the three altars held white gladioli and asters and marking the reserved pews were white gladioli caught with white satin bows.

Mrs. James T. Lawler

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William J. Gorton of 340 Lafayette St. and the late Mr. Gorton, and Mr. Lawler is the son of Mrs. C. L. Lawler of 248 S. Vine St.

Joseph Artz, of Lima, uncle of the bride, escorted her to the altar. Her gown of white nylon tulle and Chantilly lace was worn over white satin. The bodice and long sleeves were of lace, and panels of the lace extended into the skirt, ending in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a cap of hand-rolled petals accented with pearl tips and she wore the bridegroom's gift, pearl earrings and a single strand pearl choker. Entwined in her bridal bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley was a mother of pearl rosary.

MISS BARBARA VANCE was the maid of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Patricia Lawler, was bridesmaid. Their gowns were of wedgewood blue antique silk taffeta, styled with strapless bodices and floor-length skirts. They wore short jackets in the same color, matching blue tiaras with nose veils, and white gloves. Miss Vance carried a Colonial bouquet of blue delphinium centered with the same flowers in white and Miss Lawler's bouquet was of shaded blue delphinium. Connie Schenk of Lima, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a dress styled like the bride's, of white organdy over taffeta, blue satin sash and white gloves. She carried a basket of summer flowers.

Robert Wintersteller of Huron, was Mr. Lawler's best man and ushers were John Gray of Joliet, Ill., Donald Kay, Thomas Moran, Jack Ryan and Stephen Norris. Serving on the altar were Jerry Wensinger, David Krigbaum, James Kilbury and Robert Schroeter.

For the reception held at the home of the bride's mother, the rooms were decorated with summer flowers in the bride's colors of blue and white. The receiving line was in front of the picture window in the sun room.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER received in a gown of mauve lace, fitted jacket, and a matching veivet hat. Her corsage was a purple orchid. Mrs. Lawler wore white silk organza in blue and pink print, white beaded hat and a corsage of pale pink cymbidiums.

The four-tiered wedding cake was surrounded by greenery and delphinium and completing the table decorations were lighted tapers in branched candlesticks.

Assisting were Miss Carmela Palazzolo of Cincinnati, Miss Mary Schneeman of Sharonville, Mrs. Jack Dee of Bellefontaine, Miss Lois Berg of Cuyahoga Falls, Miss Joyce Grismer of Lima, Miss Linda Gilmore, Miss Judy Schill, Miss Ruth Millisor, Miss Angela Krigbaum, and Miss Joan Tobin.

When the couple left on a wedding trip in Michigan the bride was wearing a shirtmaker styled dress of silk shantung in a paprika shade, sandlewood accessories and a tan-colored cymbidium corsage. They will make their home at 355½ Mt. Vernon Ave.

BOTH MR. LAWLER and his bride are graduates of St. Mary Parochial High School. The bride attended St. Mary of the Springs College in Columbus. Mr. Lawler, who served 22 months in the U. S. Navy, attended Xavier University and was graduated from Ohio Northern University. He is on the faculty at Harding High School.

Guests were from Union City, Ind., Joliet, Ill., Birmingham, Mich., Lima, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Sandusky, Dayton, Columbus, Sharonville, Bellefontaine, Akron, Hamilton, Cuyahoga Falls, Worthington, Huron, Kenton, Russells Point, Portsmouth and Galion.

The bridegroom's mother was hostess for the rehearsal party Friday evening at Dixie's tearoom where the decorations were summer flowers in blue and white. Miss Lawler's gift to her attendants were white evening purses and pearl earrings, and she gave the flower girl a small purse. Mr. Lawler gave the best man and ushers cufflinks and tieclasps.

Miss Kay Briggs and Miss Sarah Rose of Marietta are sending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lehner of Prospect. They are classmates of Cora Jane Lehner who is a student at Otterbein College, Westerville.

—:—

The Prospect Garden Club met Thursday night at the school. Mrs. Anna Jones, regional director of this district, was the speaker and gave talks on different flower arrangements, displays and a workshop on flower arrangements.

Devotions were by Mrs. Mabel Fryman. Mrs. Goldie Lehner, president, conducted the business meeting and appointed the following nominating committee: Mrs. Mae Knachel, Mrs. Mary Hedges and Mrs. Hazel Gabriel.

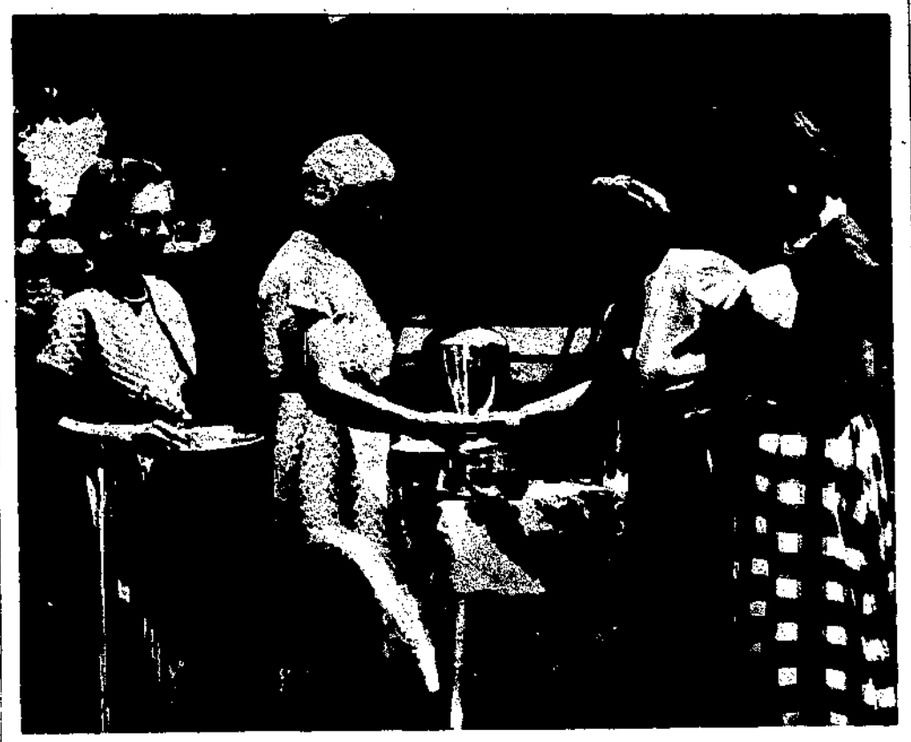
Picnic Slated On Thursday By Art Group

Next Thursday will find members of the new art department of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs getting their 1954-55 program under way. The meeting will be a picnic from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the Women's Club home.

Members wishing to paint or sketch are asked to come at 10 o'clock. There will be a "sack" lunch at noon with coffee provided at the home and after the picnic the instructors will explain the plans and members will be asked to organize in the various classes.

Instructors are Mrs. L. D. Hamilton, painting, Mrs. Frank D. Bentz, Mrs. Howard Buck, Mrs. Dale Hughes, Mrs. Howard Duhamel and Mrs. Thomas D. Bain. Miss Elizabeth Ammann, chairman of the department, will have a class in Christmas decorations starting the middle of November and continuing until the middle of December.

Garden Club Unit Gathers for Picnic



A MEETING of the Green Thumb unit of the Marion Garden Club Friday was a picnic and program at the home of Mrs. R. H. Doyle of Caledonia. Tables were arranged on the lawn for a 1 o'clock luncheon. At the coffee urn are, left to right: Mrs. Walter Frederick, treasurer, Mrs. C. V. Hudson, secretary, Mrs. Clarence W. Weber, president, and Mrs. Doyle.

Mrs. Weber presided for the meeting which opened with prayer by Mrs. E. L. Weimer. An invitation was accepted from the Town and Country Unit to attend a tea Sept. 10 in the YMCA. At this time the speaker will be Mrs. Fred Rankin of Akron, who will speak on "European Gardens." Pictures of the spring flower show were shown and there was a plant exchange.

Hostesses were Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. George Stafford, Mrs. Clarence Meister, Mrs. John Gries, Mrs. E. W. Thompson and Mrs. Hudson.

The next meeting will be a 1 o'clock luncheon at Dixie's Tearoom Aug. 27.

Richwood Firemen Extinguish Blaze

Richwood volunteer firemen were called at noon Monday to the farm of Ralph Beers, two and one-half miles east of Richwood on the Hoskins Pike, to extinguish a blaze in an oats field.

Firemen said the fire broke out when a tractor backfired, setting several acres of standing oats ablaze.

Damage was unestimated.

Girls To Wear Identical Clothing for Last Time

Church Activities

The quarterly meeting of St Mary Parish Council of the National Council Catholic Women will be held Thursday evening in Moira Hall. The program topic will be "Religious Activities" and will be presented by Mrs. Edward T. Huber, chairman.

A social hour and refreshments will follow the business session and program. At this time Mrs. Charles Faurot, president, will name chairmen and committees for the year.

The Salem Ladies Aid Society met at the church in the basement for an all-day meeting Thursday. The day was spent quilting and sewing carpet rags. Mrs. David Gompf and Mrs. Orrie Myers were guests.

—:—

Miss Shirley Whitaker, Lucille Simmons, Virginia Linscott and Marlene Pollock returned home Saturday from attending the EUB Junior High Camp at St. Marys last week. They were from the Salem EUB Church here at Beech.

Reunions

ADAMS

The sixth reunion of the Adams family was held Sunday at Wyeot Lake in Akron. Mrs. Claude Patten of Mount Gilead was elected secretary for the next year. Guests were present from Akron, Lakewood, Huron and Marion. Next year's reunion will be held the last Sunday in July in Cleveland.

REICHARDT

The annual Reichardt reunion was held at Ashley Grange Hall Sunday with about 60 persons present. Officers elected for 1955 were William Reichardt of Waldo, president; Carl Haberman of Marion, vice president; and Florence Carr of Green Camp, secretary-treasurer.

Relatives attended from Bellville, Galion, Toledo, Columbus, Spencerville, Peoria, Waldo, Green Camp and Marion. The next reunion will be in the basement of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, west of Green Camp.

Area Restaurant Owners Hold Meeting at Bucyrus

BUCYRUS — Members of the North Central Ohio Restaurant Owners' Association held their regular monthly meeting here Monday night at the Corona Villa with George Jacobs, a Cleveland restaurant owner, as principal speaker.

Jacobs discussed the new Ohio restaurant licensing law, which recently went into effect. Another speaker was Leon Kuenning, president of the state association. He discussed food costs and led a panel discussion. The program arrangements were in charge of Chris Turoff of Marion.

Plans were made for a membership drive to be conducted Sept. 22.

Bridges' Error

By George Sokolsky

"The Reporter," a magazine owned and edited by Max Ascoli, who arrived in this country sometime in 1931 on a grant-in-aid from the Rockefeller Foundation, has published an astonishing article on Sen. Styles Bridges. This issue of "The Reporter" boasts 40 pages of copy; the article on Sen. Bridges consumes 14 pages which is a big slice of any publication.

SOKOLSKY

Perhaps Bridges deserves 35 per cent of this issue of this magazine, but when it was discovered that for some reason the state of New Hampshire was blanketed with copies, one wonders what was the interest and who spent the money for the free distribution.

True, Bridges is a candidate this year for re-election to the United States Senate of which he is president pro tempore, a high office, fourth in succession for the presidency. As it is expected that the Republicans will renominate him and that his re-election is assured, one wonders why all this excitement, particularly as the article is altogether uncomplimentary.

APPARENTLY, Bridges's greatest crime, according to "The Reporter," is:

"A lonely Republican internationalist before the outbreak of the second World War, he has in the main voted silently for the major postwar foreign - policy programs while at the same time endorsing nearly every crippling amendment dreamed up by such senators as Kem, Jenner, Dirksen, Welker—and by himself. He has regularly voiced deep discontent with some of America's allies in Europe, but has pledged undying support to the exiled government of Chiang Kai-shek."

Who does not voice discontent with some of America's allies in Europe? I have heard something of the sort recently from President Eisenhower, Vice President Nixon, Secretary of State Dulles, and Majority Leader Knowland.

If it is a crime to ask why France has delayed ratifying the EDC treaty, if it is a crime to object to seating Red China in the United Nations, then our highest officials have committed the same crime that Bridges has.

One wonders, if it is so wrong to support "the exiled government of Chiang Kai-shek," does "The Reporter" want the United States to take to its bosom the Communist government of Mao Tze-tung?

Do the editors of this publication expect an American, such as Bridges is, to support Communists anywhere? Why should he when their armies intervened in the Korean War to murder our sons?

BRIDGES HAS been a tower of strength to the Republicans in the Senate, particularly after the death of Robert A. Taft, because his personality is such that he has often been able to quiet down the quarrelling factions and personalities in the party.

It is no secret that he has played this useful role. "The Reporter" article describes this in the following language:

"Probably the main reason for the obscure character that Bridges has retained during his many years in the Senate lies in the nature of the specialized political field in which he has achieved his greatest eminence. The repute of a manipulator of political influence is not susceptible to standard publicity gimmicks. Such a man must pursue hidden paths, conduct his negotiations in inner rooms, speak in the halftones of suasion and threat. . ."

From this introduction to Bridges's faulty thinking, the article proceeds in minute detail to discuss all of the favors that this senator may or may not have done for constituents or citizens for whom he may have intervened.

SOME ARE important and interesting; some are trival. I should like to devote what space remains to me to refer to Chapter VIII of the article, entitled "China Lobby, New Hampshire Div.'

Of course, there is no China Lobby. Alfred Kohlberg, an American merchant and manufacturer who loves Chiang, started this nonsense by denominating himself "The China Lobby' and demanding that he be investigated which no one does because Kohlberg spends his own money fighting Communism.

He is also president of the American - Jewish League against Communism, to which he contributes abundantly.

It so happens that Sen. Bridges opposes Communism in China as anywhere else and therefore Kohlberg favors Bridges as he does everyone who opposes Communism.

"The Reporter" says:

"Over the years since the Second World War, Sen. Bridges has developed with increasing fervor the theme of treason at home as an explanation for disaster in Asia. . ."

Did Max Ascoli ever hear of Alger Hiss?

Intricate Web

By Victor Riesel

PARIS

There are indeed many intricate networks of Soviet fifth columns run by the Russian embassy in this confused, frightened and yet booming capital of world gaiety and betrayal.

RIESEL

The names of the Soviet saboteurs, killers, spies, infiltrators into government bureaus, cafe and "relais keepers, reaus, cafe and "relais keepers, union officials, and the soft contacts in our own overlooded embassy are kept in the embassy of the U.S.S.R. on highly inflammable negatives. They can be burned in a roar of flame with the drop of a match.

There are those in high places here, especially those close to our own American labor leaders, who say that this fifth column dooms France.

They say that Mendes - France ended the crack-down on the Communist apparatus. The call him "Benes-France and accuse him of having set Paris on the road to Prague. Yet there are those equally well informed who defend Mendes-France.

ALL AGREE on the power of th Soviet Fifth Columns in this land — networks which have agents inside the very plants which make spare parts for our planes and guns and tanks.

Networks which have people inside our bases.

Networks which were able to call out 2,600,000 disciplined Communist workers last April 28 in a strike denounced by every one but the Communist party — and which the party itself in a confidential report of the Organization Committee of the C.G.T. to all Affiliates and leaders said was badly timed and "Not in accordance with the possibilities of the full mobilization of the workers.

That national strike — which the Communist party hopes to repeat in a month or two — would have been far more effective if not for counter action by our friends which can be reported here for the first time.

The strongly anti - Communist premier who preceeded Mendes-France, working through channels which cannot be revealed, quietly gave tough French veterans of the Indochinese fighting jobs in such factories as the Renault auto and tank plants. The vets, counterparts of our GI paratroops who saw action in Korea, hate the commies and began mopping up the partys terror squads.

RESULT WAS that when the commies began rounding up support for their April 28 rehearsal for revolution as a show of strength, the French vets of the Indochinese war protected the non-Communist workers.

Only 700 out of 35,000 Renault workers struck, although the Communist party is known to have 1,500 card - carrying members in its Renault industrial call. This meant that our friends had begun cracking party strength and discipline. This was the case in the entire metal industry of Paris—in Simca and Citroen, as well as in the Renault works, despite the power of the party amongst the workers in the Red belt towns around Paris.

Some of the government officials who worked with the anti-Communists against the industrial fifth column were fired over the July 10 weekend. Without government support, our friends will be beaten back by the commie goon squads.

Matching the fifth column among industrial workers is a Communist network among the farm workers in the lush French countryside.

Our rural friends, who could use a little of the loose money poured into this city by some of our agencies, report that the Communists have a network built around the old Red partisan apparatus of the last war.

Tis rural fifth column is completely organized, and is under instructions to do nothing but wait for the moment when it is to receive Soviet parachutists at night, hide and guide them against our troops, air bases and materiel depots, not to mention, of course, the NATO headquarters under the truly great Gen. Gruenther.

ANTI-COMMUNIST farm workers leaders are doing some counter organizing and are publishing an effective little paper — but they have little money to continue this work, let alone trying to match what the Russians pour in.

So there's no doubt that the Russian saboteurs and troops will be well received behind our lines — if the signal for war comes.

Meanwhile the commies have grown so arrogant they boast in their press — as they did recently—that they will sabotage the land if France ratifies the European Defense Community charter. And they can, too.

They have a minimum of 50,000 trained underground "troops made up of husky miners, metal workers, dockwallopers and just plain thugs. Already their shock troops — working with such notorious bands as the "Camelots du Roi — assault pro - American public speakers

The main body of their fifth column troops, like their spies in waiters unions; their agents in the atomic research labs, chemical plants and power houses, and their friends in movie and television and newspaper and intellectual circles — some led by the Red existentialist Jean Paul Sartre and old Picasso himself — sit by and wait the signal.

Some will be saboteurs and some will be propagandists — but all will be fifth columnists who want to see the U.S. destroyed.

Random reflections by a pavement Plato:

Old bachelors are usually more fussy and set in their ways than old maids — probably because they don't keep pet cats.

Nobody I know ever made a life-long friend at a cocktail party.

Did you ever meet a life insurance salesman who didn't carry a pocket calendar in his wallet?

Anybody who doesn't appreciate what he has now will never be made happy by what he gets later.

Nine out of 10 men brag they are hard-headed can be put down as intolerant bores.

THE ORDINARY COP has to get in a gun battle to get his picture in the papers. But he performs more little unnoticed acts of real philanthropy in a week than the average millionaire does in a year.

Men get more pleasure out of a new pair of shoes than women do, but they always feel self-conscious in new headgear. It is this odd feeling of inferiority that makes them jeer so much at women's hat styles.

Whenever I see a guy tip a hat-check girl more than two bits, I can't help feeling he is a showoff and probably stingy with his own wife.

On the other hand, when a woman breaks into tears at a restaurant table, why does everyone in the place leap to the conclusion she must be wonderful and the guy sitting with her is a lousy bum? It could just as easily be the other way around.

I NEVER YET met a middle-aged man who admitted he owned a raccoon coat in college.

Half the women who claim they like caviar are prestige liars, and if the stuff sold for a dollar a pound they wouldn't be caught eating it. The most popular food with women today is tuna fish and weary lettuce, but they get their greatest satisfaction gnawing on old steak bones at home, when nobody can see them. A woman doesn't fool a waiter when she tells him to wrap up the remnants of a big restaurant steak "so I can take it to my dog." He knows that, even if she does have a dog, the dog won't get any of the steak unless it is willing to fight her for it.

NOTHING CHEERS the heart of a bald-headed man more than seeing another fellow in an ill-fitting toupee.

Whatever happened to "Wrong Way" Corrigan, technocracy and canasta?

After all the trouble I've seen, the vision that returns most often to my mind is the sight of a little girl in a Sunday dress, nearly 20 years ago, who skipped down a garden and paused to pet each flower on the head, talking to it as if it were alive. I never knew who she was, but over the years the pretty scene often swims back into my memory, and I wonder if life has been as kind to her as she was to those flowers in that moment long past.

SOME PEOPLE confuse mechanization, with civiiization. I feel sorry for a man who doesn't bother to watch a sunset from his back porch because he knows that in a year or two he can see it in his living room on a color television screen.

The best free advice I ever heard came from an old farmer who said, "anybody who marries —or buys a horse—in a hurry is bound to have worries."

Has anybody noticed, since Dr. Kinsey's last book came out, that women are getting any easier to understand?

BLAST INJURES 7

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—An explosion and fire at the Allied Chemical and Dye Co. plant in nearby South Point injured seven employes yesterday. The company would not release a list of injured but the State Highway Patrol said none of the seven was hurt seriously. A split cylinder on a compressor was blamed for the explosion.

Business Empire Totters As Ironton Paper Folds

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—From waitress to bank president is the story of Mrs. Fronia Sexton, 62-year-old grandmother whose small business empire here appeared to collapse yesterday.

The Ironton Courier, which she founded 13 months ago, suspended daily publication yesterday, a few weeks after she was arrested on a charge of embezzling $114,000 while president of the Citizens National Bank here.

Her son, A. J. Sexton Jr., said the newspaper was unable to meet current costs of operation. He spoke for the Ironton Publishing Co., which Mrs. Sexton headed.

The Courier plant was located in a reconverted theater building, part of Mrs. Sexton's real estate holdings. It published its first issue June 29, 1953.

Mrs. Sexton resigned as president of the bank the day after her arrest, was freed on bond and now awaits federal court action at Cincinnati.

After her arrest, she stayed secluded a few days in her apartment, then moved into the only executive office at the Courier to see if she personally could make it survive.

Five editors and two general managers had been utilized during the Courier's fight for existence—for a while against two other daily papers in this Ohio River town with a 16,333 population.

Deeds and mortgages to her holdings were turned over in trust to the American Surety Co., which repaid the bank's loss.

Included in the transfer were the Courier plant and the Ro-Na Theater, which she operates, plus other real estate.

Her attorney said a "substantial" cash payment also was made.

Frugal and decisive, Mrs. Sexton began her business career as waitress-operator of a small cafe near the railroad tracks in Russell, Ky., across the river from Ironton. This was in the 1920s.

She expanded her holdings into Ashland, Ky., and Ironton, where she built up a chain of theaters, office buildings and a restaurant. She was responsible for building a new business section on Third St., Ironton's main thoroughfare.

She became president of the Citizens National Bank and then decided to publish a newspaper.

Hard-working and independent, she worked days at the bank and evenings at her Ro-Na Theater. Her husband, Ron, is retired because of poor health.

During the Courier's battle for circulation, it merged three days with its morning competitor, the Ironton Daily News, then withdrew bac kto single publication Aug. 4, 1953. On Nov. 14 that year, the Courier absorbed the News. It remained in competition with the Ironton Tribune, an evening daily.

Her son said the Courier may become a weekly newspaper. Its 34 employes were notified yesterday of the suspension.

Driver Turns at Wrong Block, Trolley Bus Stalls

BALTIMORE (AP)—Operator Willard Brannan drove his No. 10 trackless trolley from Broadway into Bank Street yesterday.

Then he turned to his grinning passengers and explained that they'd have to get off and wait for the next No. 10.

Following several automobiles ahead of him, Brannan had made a left turn one block too soon. Trolleyless, as well as trackless, his vehicle stalled.

BUCYRIANS START TRAINING

BUCYRUS — Three members of the Bucyrus Civil Air Patrol Cadet unit yetserday began a week's regular Air Force orientation at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base at Dayton. The youths are Cadet Lieut. John V. Wook, Airman 1-c Wayne L. Barrows and Airman 2-c Larry D. Bogan. In addition to Air Force orientation training, the youths will receive leadership training in command staff procedures.

'Too Big To Rush'

Senate Scrap on Atomic Bill Laid to Poor Timing

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Time has ridden like a hag on the back of the Eisenhower administration's efforts to make broad changes in the atomic law, first passed in 1946, covering the development and use of atomic energy.

The Republicans were trying to put these changes through in Congress just when they were also rushing to get finished with other major legislation so Congress in this election year could finish by July 31.

But the changes proposed were far-reaching. And the objections to them by a group of Democrats and some others were so strong that they said in effect to the administration: "Whoa, not so fast." They were sore about the timing.

Sen Knowland of California, Senate Republican leader, was conscious of the time too. For months he had had his eyes set on that July 31 target date.

SO HE BEGAN driving the Senate to finish with the atomic bill and go on with the rest of the bills still awaiting Senate action. The Democrats, aided by Senators Langer (R-ND) and Morse (Ind-Ore), wouldn't be rushed.

Actually, work on the atomic changes began last year when the Joint Atomic Energy Committee, made up of Democrats and Republicans from House and Senate, began considering bringing the 1946 atomic law up to date.

In 1946 the United States alone had the secret of the bomb. Now more than 20 countries—including Russia, Britain and Canada—have worked in the atomic field, Russia with extraordinary success.

In 1946 no one knew how much progress might be made in developing atomic energy for peaceful purposes. So everything connected with this country's atomic work was clothed in secrecy by the law of 1946.

BUT THERE HAS been progress, technologically, which could be pushed for making the atom do peaceful work. In providing power, for instance. And there have been changes in foreign relations.

The United States now, through President Eisenhower, has proposed a world pooling of nonmilitary atomic information for peaceful purposes. And there is the problem of sharing some atomic military information with this country's allies.

Yet, it wasn't until July 12 that the joint committee's report, explaining the changes in existing law which would be made by the bill it produced after all its examinations, was given to the senators to study. The bill reached the Senate floor the next day.

Sen. Lehman (D-Lib-NY), one of the leaders in the fight against the bill, complained that the changes it would make were too deep and significant to be studied on such short notice.

SOME OF THOSE changes would let private industry into the development of atomic energy for private profit. Whatever work big companies have done since 1946 has been for the government.

Democrats protested the bill was so written that a few companies, which already had know-how from their work with the government, could get a monopoly.

Atomic energy could be used for power — electricity — although turning it out that way won't be economical for years yet. And the Democrats argued atomic power was something the public, which paid for atomic research, had a big claim on.

In addition, the bill would loosen up on some of the atomic secrecy. For example, U. S. allies would be let in on some military atomic information.

Knowland, determined to get the atomic bill through, ordered the Senate into round-the-clock sessions. This made the opposition madder. Knowland tried some usual moves to cut off debate. He failed, and now says Congress can't quit before Aug. 7.

Last night both sides yielded a bit and maybe the Senate will vote on the bill this week. But it will be a bill changed from the one offered in mid-July.

DIES OF INJURIES

CLEVELAND (AP)—Rosemarie Rapp, 20, of suburban Warrensville Heights died yesterday of injuries she received Saturday when a train struck the automobile in which she was riding at Chardon. The crash also killed the driver, 29-year-old Donald A. Holycross of Garfield Heights.

Car Runs Off Road To Avoid Collision

An attempt to avoid a collision resulted in an accident in Morrow County Monday night at 10:15 p.m. State patrolmen from the Marion post, who investigated the mishap, said a car driven by Joseph A. Beegan, 60, of New York City went off the pavement on U. S. Route 42, three-tenths of a mile north of State Route 314.

Beegan was southbound and pulled to his right to avoid striking a northbound car which was traveling in the wrong lane. His car ran into low berm in a construction area at the site and skidded into a fence. Extensive damage was done to the front and right side of his car.

Senator Faces 2 Opponents in Arkansas Test

McClellan Challenged By Ex-Governor in Democratic Primary

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, who two years ago participated in the defeat of Sid McMath for a third term as Arkansas governor, today meets the challenge of McMath for his own job.

McMath and another candidate, Paul Chambers, Arkansas' Democratic national committeeman, are attempting to oust McClellan from the Senate seat he has held for nearly 12 years. A fourth candidate, Leonard Ellis, did not campaign.

If no candidate gets a majority of the total vote cast in today's Democratic primary, the two top men will meet again in a second primary two weeks hence.

In Arkansas, Democratic nomination is equivalent to election.

McClellan, senior Democrat on Sen. Joseph McCarthy's Senate Investigations subcommittee and in that role familiar to television audiences during the recent McCarthy-Army hearings, campaigned mainly on his 12-year record and the prestige he said his seniority gave.

McMath attacked him as a "Democrat in name only," a Republican and an errand boy for "Texas oil millionaires" and "the power trust."

Chambers declared both his opponents represent special interests —McClellan "big business" and McMath, organized labor—and that only he could represent "all the people."

Besides McClellan, Rep. Oren Harris of El Dorado in the 4th District is the only member of Arkansas' all-Democrat congressional delegation opposed for renomination.

Gov. Francis Cherry, who beat McMath two years ago with the active support of McClellan, also has three opponents for renomination: Orval Faubus of Huntsville, State Sen. Guy Jones of Conway and Gus McMillan of Sheridan.

Polls open at 8 a.m., CST, and close at 6:30 p.m.

Baby Ready for Coiffure at 7 Weeks

AT THE AGE OF SEVEN WEEKS, little Shelley Jeanne Thornton, who sports soft brown hair one and one-half inches long, gets more than her share of second glances. Shelley Jeanne, latest addition to the family, and her five-year-old "big sister" Hope Elizabeth, shown above with their mother, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thornton of 337½ Chestnut St. When they learn the baby's age, people are amazed at the unusually long hair, Mrs. Thornton says. Shelley Jeanne was born June 3 in Marion City Hospital.

Watchmaking Industry First

Ike Feeling Pressure To Boost Tariffs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Heavy pressure to protect a key industry in the production of delicate wartime instruments bore down on President Eisenhower today as he considered whether to order his first major tariff increase—on imported watch movements.

The Tariff Commission has recommended a 50 per cent increase in tariff rates to protect the highly skilled domestic watchmaking trade.

Other Industries in Line

Scores of other industries, interested in their own protection from lower-cost foreign imports, waited with interest. Lead and zinc producers also have a tariff increase bid pending on Eisenhower's desk.

Foreign governments were concerned whether the movement for free world trade — already jarred by Congress' inaction on Eisenhower's three-year plan of gradual tariff reduction—might receive another setback.

Although the U.S. watch industry is comparatively small, consumers have a stake too. Importers estimated the tariff boost, if approved in full, would increase the cost of an imported watch by $3.50 to $5.

Since he took office Eisenhower has turned down Tariff Commission proposals for higher duties on briar pipes, shears and scissors and groundfish fillets. He approved in part a recommendation for increasing the duty on alsike clover-seed.

Defense Angle

But the pressure for higher tariffs on Swiss watch movements has been built mainly on claims the domestic watchmaking craft is essential to national defense. The industry was the major wartime producer of precision instruments and timing devices.

A Senate Armed Services subcommittee, after hearing military officials testify to the "unique" skills of the watch and clock trade, reported on Saturday that the industry must be kept "alive and vital."

Domestic companies have complained that rising imports from Switzerland, where watchmakers are paid less, are damaging the market for American watchworks and causing layoffs which are scattering the trained working force.

Importers contend the watch industry is not the sole maker of instruments and timers, noting that camera producers furnished them in World War II. They also argue that if Switzerland's dollar-earning exports are reduced by the higher tariff wall, the Swiss will be able to buy fewer American farm products and manufactured items.

Traffic Cases in Court

Fines and bond forfeitures totaling $340 were assessed 16 drivers in Marion Municipal Court Monday on various traffic charges.

Pleas of guilty to three separate charges brought fines totaling $55 and costs to Paul E. Millington, 27, of Richwood. He was charged with failure to obey a police officer's command, driving left of center and having no muffler on his car.

The latter charge was originally filed against him on Aug. 2, 1952. He was cited to appear in Municipal Court at that time but failed to do so. Arrested again over the weekend on the left-of-center charge, it was discovered he had never appeared on the no-muffler charge, and the third charge of failure to obey an officer's command was filed.

Two motorists forfeited $35 bonds each when they failed to appear for hearings yesterday. They were Roman R Miller, 45, of Silver Springs, Md., passing in a no passing zone, and Ralph Robinette, 22, of Ecorse, Mich., speeding.

Driving rights of another motorist were revoked for three years when he pleaded guilty to a charge of leaving the scene of an accident. He was Richard Brown, 26, of 205 Latourette St. He was also given a suspended fine of $10 and costs.

Other dispositions were:

Speeding: Keith G. Frey, 24, of Van Wert, $15 and costs; Delbert Clary, 27, of Londonderry, $15 and costs suspended; John J. Wallo, 30, of Detroit, $15 and costs suspended; George Kuba, 35, of 411 Blaine Ave., $25 and costs.

Miscellaneous: James K. Richardson, 29, Modesto, Calif., two charges, no driver's license, $15 and costs, and insufficient brakes, $25 and costs suspended; Edward Thurman Jr., 28, of Columbus, insufficient brakes, $15 and costs; Harry W. Johnson, 73, of near Marion, no driver's license, $15 and costs; Charles E. Huff, 33, of near Powell, crossing over a yellow line, $15 and costs: Ben Verson, 45, of Mount Vernon, passing at a railroad crossing, $15 and costs; John P. Andresz, 39, of near Marion, stop sign violation, $15 and costs suspended. Wilbur F. Dorsey, 40, of Cleveland, no driver's license, $15 and costs; and Orville Massie Jr., 28, of Richwood, failure to yield right of way $15 and costs.

MAYOR FINES DRIVER

One man was arrested by state patrolmen from the Marion post in Morrow County Monday. Louie Lyteral, 30, of Columbus was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Emery Murphy of Mount Gilead on a charge of driving with no operator's license on State Route 61.

Planes

was scheduled to deal with the German situation, but would also give the senators an opportunity to talk over the Far Eastern situation with the secretary.

The weekend plane clashes, climaxed by the shooting down of two attacking Chinese fighters by U.S. planes, aroused angry protests in Congress and further embittered American feelings toward the Pepping regime.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) said today the Communist world should read "a strenghened U.S. foreign policy" into the shooting down Sunday night of the two Communist planes off the Red-held island of Hainan.

Others Join In

Others on Capitol Hill joined in a general "well done" for the U.S. Airmen who downed the planes.

Ferguson, — chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said it was wise policy to shoot down the Communist attackers, because failure to fight back "might have misled them into believing that Americans won't fight."

"Let this be a lesson to them, that Americans will defend themselves and their rights on the high seas," he added.

Ferguson said the Communists should have recognized "strengthened U.S. foreign policy" in recent months, particularly since President Eisenhower had sent aircraft carriers to "protect and help this mission of mercy." The U.S. planes were aiding in a search for possible survivors of the British plane.

Chairmen of both the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees urged colleagues to let the White House and State Department call the signals.

Expect Briefing

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis) announced the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which he heads probably will discuss the situation during the week with Secretary of State Dulles.

Wiley said his advice, meanwhile, is that "this should be left in the hands of the executive" and that official Washington should "not fly off the handle."

He said the Red shootings "did not create a new situation — we have been at war with the Chinese Communists for years in Korea."

"But if these conditions persist," he said, "I personally feel we should indicate we are ready to protect our rights on the sea lanes of the world, and that we will not tolerate interference with those rights."

Goodrich

members of the "Big Four" of rubber, Goodrich, U. S. Rubber Co. and Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.

Workers at U. S. Rubber Co. are already working on the same basis as are the workers at Goodrich. Their contract expired earlier in the month, but no strike was called.

About 150 of the 175 workers at the local plant will be affected by the new contract, when it is signed.

Workers in the major steel, electrical and automobile plants have obtained an increase of about 5 cents an hour this year, rubber company officials say. And this is what Goodyear and Goodrich have offered.

But this is not satisfactory to the rubber workers.

"We are doing our own bargaining," union Vice President Joseph Childs told a reporter in Cincinnati. "We're not letting another industry do it for us."

He put the decision concisely: "The union will not settle for 5 cents."

From Goodrich, the CIO is seeking a 12-cent package. It wants to iron out what it calls inequalities in pay among its nine plants scattered in eight states.

The hourly rate of pay averages $2.05, according to union statistics. But apparently there are sharp differences among the factories. These have not been publicized.

From Goodyear, the union asked 7½ cents an hour, plus 5¼ cents to correct similar interplant "inequities."

Management's viewpoint, reflected by D. D. Reichow, industrial relations director at Goodyear, is that the 5 cent hike would be fair and just.

Grass Fire Put Out

Marion city firemen were called out once during the last 24 hours. Mark St. station firemen answered an alarm to a vacant lot at 638 Catherine Ave. at 3:10 p.m. Monday. They said children playing with matches set some grass and rubbish afire but there was no loss.

B&O INCOME DOWN

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad said yesterday its net income for the first half of 1954 was $7,246,803—down a whopping $6,403,194 from the same period of 1953. Gross operating revenues totaled $188,239,269, the railroad said, a decline of $42,380,420 from the 1953 half-year level. During June, the B&O had a net income of $1,700,717, the highest for any month this year, but down $1,318,129 from June 1953.

Charter

that as city solicitor he "probably would have to bring a mandamus action" in Common Pleas Court to order the question placed on the ballot, if Council failed to act.

In the voting which followed Ralph Williams, fourth ward, James Jenkins, second ward, and Richard Lister, at-large, voted against submitting the question to the voters.

Voting for the ordinance were Smith, Herman Rinehart, third ward, Don E. Quaintance, fifth ward, and Warren Diehl, at-large.

Harold Fralich, sixth ward, and Robert G. Haldeman, at-large, were both absent. It required a majority of five yes votes.

Council President William Slack started to declare the ordinance lost, when Quaintance asked for a reconsideration of the vote.

He said the issue would be placed on the ballot regardless of Council action and since time was growing short felt that someone should reconsider his vote.

HE NOTED that Council last year adopted an ordinance placing the question of election of a charter commission on the ballot. The commission was duly elected and performed its duty in drafting the proposed charter, he said. Council should now authorize placing the issue of adoption of the charter on the ballot because of these prior actions, he said.

Rinehart said that if Council did not approve the ordinance, the city solicitor would be hard pressed to complete the mandamus action in time to place the issue on the ballot. He said he felt Council should not place this extra work load on the solicitor.

There followed more brief remarks by various councilmen after which Williams said that he wished to change his vote. This gave the proposed ordinance the necessary majority of five yes votes.

LATER LISTER spoke up and said he wished to qualify his vote against submitting the issue to the voters. He said he voted against the ordinance only because he was opposed to the form of city government proposed in the charter. "I am not opposed to a city charter if it would leave the city government just as it is now," he said.

Council President Slack declared the ordinance adopted, assuring that the issue will appear on the ballot on Nov. 2.

The other ordinance affecting the proposed charter authorized the appropriation of $1,300 from the general fund to pay the cost of printing and mailing one copy of the proposed charter to each registered voter in the city.

This work is to be done by the Fulfillment Corporation of America. The charter copies must be mailed to the voters no later than 30 days prior to the election.

THERE WAS BRIEF discussion prior to passage of this ordinance on the submission of additional pages to the charter by the charter commission. These pages were an index and functional chart showing the organization of municipal government as proposed by the charter. The main body of the charter was presented to Council at its last meeting.

Councilman Don Quaintance said the additional pages might raise the cost of printing and mailing above the $1,300 called for in the ordinance. City Auditor Elmer Shaw said he felt the $1,300 would be sufficient to cover the cost.

The Fulfillment Corp. had submitted a bid of $600 for printing the first 17,000 copies of the charter, three cents for each copy over 17,000 and $280 for addressing, affixing postage stamps and mailing them.

The ordinance included these bid prices. Council decided to eliminate the reference to cost from the ordinance to eliminate the danger that the additional pages submitted last night would prevent printing and mailing of the charter copies.

Council also gave a vote of thanks to the League of Women Voters for its offer to address and mail the charter copies but added that prior negotiations had been completed with the Fulfillment Corp. for both printing and mailing them.

The time element would prevent re-negotiating with the Fulfillment Corp. for printing only, according to Quaintance. The League of Women Voters made its offer in a letter to Council last night.

congressional investigating groups access to loyalty-security information from the executive agencies without White House approval.

"And it is with dismay," he said, "that I see so many of the same men now disposed to concede to the executive the permanent right to withhold such vital information from congressional committees—in fact, to interpret any demurrer against what they used to call the censorship code as a frontal attack on the executive branch of the government."

Buckeye Cage Coach Talks to Marion Lions

Floyd Stahl, basketball coach and assistant athletic director at Ohio State University and former Buckeye baseball coach, spoke on "Baseball for our Youth" to members of the Marion Lions Club at their weekly luncheon meeting at Hotel Harding yesterday.

Stressing the importance of planned sporting events for the youth of any city, Stahl told the group "no more worthwhile investment can be made than in youth recreation."

Stahl said that "sports such as baseball helps eliminate petty juvenile problems and assists youth through the adolescent age." He added that "leadership is very important in the field of all sports" and said that example and instruction made impressions that youths carry through their high school years and even into college. Stahl also pointed out the importance of Little League and Pony League baseball. He said that "boys learn better at Little League ages and the results show up many times in the later years of competition of sports as well as life."

Stahl reviewed many humerous baseball stories relating to Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker and other famous baseball players of the past.

Jack Hughes introduced the speaker and Robert Cripps, Lions Club president, presided.

Indochina

They must be out of the Hanoi area within 80 days from today. The marchers to the sea must be past Hai Duong, midway on the route, 20 days after that. The evacuees have 300 days from today to quit their Haiphong beachhead, destined to be the last French foot hold in North Viet Nam.

Vietnamese Deserting

Not all the Vietnamese troops will be moving south. The French admitted yesterday that a number of the native soldiers were pulling out of their posts and disappearing, presumably returning to their homes in hopes the Vietminh would forgive and forget.

French officials also pushed plans to move hundreds of thousands of French and Vietnamese civilians southward, as many as want to get away. They planned to begin a combined sea and air lift tomorrow and predicted it would be taking 5,000 persons daily away from Hanoi and Haiphong by mid-August.

It was an hour of triumph for Ho Chi Minh and the Reds, an hour of bitter defeat for the French and the anti-Communist world. Under the terms of the Geneva agreement, Ho and his Vietminh get control of almost 78,000 square miles of Viet Nam's total 127,380. In that northern portion live between 11 and 12 million people.

Each side had paid a heavy price for the result. Though the French officially put the total of military casualties on both sides at around 320,000, unofficial sources figured them at close to 800,000 dead, wounded or missing.

Of these, 173,000 were French Union Vietnamese troops. The Vietminh dead and wounded were estimated at 600,000.

There was no estimate of civilian casualties.

Cost $10 Billion

In money and materials, the war cost France and the United States some 10 billion dollars.

The ceasefire will be supervised by a commission made up of India, Poland and Canada, with India as chairman. An official of the Indian Foreign Ministry announced in New Delhi today that his government has invited the other two commission members as well as France, Viet Nam, Laos, Cambodia and the Vietminh to meet at an "early date" in the Indian capital to discuss arrangements for the group.

jom which led to the Korean armistice; and asked:

"What have they accomplished? The only thing accomplished is to see the Communist cause grow stronger."

Asked whether Eisenhower agreed with him that there can be no peaceful unification of Korea, Rhee smiled and said:

"I don't think I can answer that."

Rhee described his talk with Eisenhower as "very interesting."

He referred to it as "something like a family discussion," and added that neither he nor Eisenhower was trying "to fight for his own cause."

The outspoken 79-year-old South Korean President had set a blunt tone in an impromptu statement on his arrival yesterday for intensive talks running through Friday. He thanked the American people for their aid but said there would be no unification worries if the Allies "only had a little more courage" in driving out the Communists.

He said the Reds were not pushed across the Yalu River because "some people had a little cold feet."

Eisenhower also gave an indication at his news conference last week of the frank nature the talks are expected to assume. He said then he knew of no one in this country who was advocating resumption of Korean hostilities.

CARL F. BARCHFELD
Takes Crucible Steel Position

Carl F. Barchfeld Named Sales Head Of Cleveland Firm

Carl F. Barchfeld, now sales manager of the Commercial Steel Casting Co. in Marion will assume the post of sales manager of Crucible Steel Casting Co. in Cleveland effective Sunday. His resignation from the local plant is to take effect that day.

Barchfeld who lives at 695 S Prospect St., has been associated with the local firm since 1937, except for a tour of duty with the U. S. Navy from 1943 to 1946. Before joining Commercial, he was with American Steel Foundries at Pittsburgh and Verona, Pa. He has been in the steel casting business for 32 years.

He has been active in the affairs of the company and has also taken a leading role in the promotion of progress of the steel casting industry through service as a member of several committees and as an officer of the Steel Founders' Society of America.

Barchfeld was elected national director of the society in 1950, a post he held through 1953. In 1952, he was named vice president of the society and re-elected again last year. As vice president, he served as a member of the society's executive and budget committees.

Sheppard

Dr. Sheppard said at the inquest that he and Miss Hayes visited for four days in March at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, mutual friends living in Los Angeles. He denied any intimacies with her, however.

Dr. Sheppard went to California with his wife for the announced purpose of taking postgraduate work. While he stayed at Dr. Miller's residence, his wife visited at the ranch home of Mrs. Randall J. Chapman.

The inquest, held in the Normandy School auditorium in suburban Bay Village and attended by flocks of women and girls garbed in shorts and sundresses, was adjourned indefinitely yesterday afternoon by Coroner Samuel R. Gerber.

Shortly before that, the coroner had ejected from the proceedings the attorney for Dr. Samuel Sheppard, the handsome osteopath whose wife was found bludgeoned to death in her bed the morning of July 4.

Capt. David E. Kerr, head of the police homicide bureau, entered the scene for the first time yesterday when he returned with his wife and two children from a vacation in Cuba.

Kerr immediately criticized the way the Bay Village authorities handled the case before the Cleveland police department took over last week. He told reporters Dr. Sheppard should have been held for questioning right after the slaying was discovered. As it was, the osteopath spent most of the three days following the murder in a hospital, undergoing treatment for injuries he said were inflicted by a man who killed his wife.

Silent on Statement

The Bay Village police chief, John P Eaton, said he had no comment to make on Kerr's statements.

Later, Cleveland's police chief, Frank W. Story, announced he had accepted an offer by 24-year-old Susan Hayes to return here from California for questioning in the slaying.

Testimony at the inquest yesterday included statements that Dr. Sheppard had talked about a divorce last March and that a physical examination did not show him to be seriously injured after his wife was slain.

William J. Corrigan, one of Cleveland's leading criminal lawyers, was the attorney who was removed from the proceedings yesterday. He had twice clashed with the coroner over what was being taken down by a stenographer for the record.

Gerber, who had maintained Corrigan was there only as a spectator since none of the witnesses was represented by counsel in the inquest, snapped "put him out" to end the second argument. A policeman and a deputy sheriff performed the deed and Corrigan later told reporters he was "going to sue those responsible for this."

Spectators cheered as Corrigan was dragged out of the room. Women converged on Gerber, and several hugged him when he recessed the hearings.

After the adjournment, Gerber told reporters he did not know just when he would resume the inquest.

Flood Victims Given 'CARE' Relief Packets

An initial distribution of $11,500 worth of CARE packages was among the first relief supplies to reach victims of the Danube floods in Austria and Germany. It was reported today by E. W. Coles, agent of the Railway Express Agency, who serves as voluntary CARE representative in this area.

Since cables from CARE's mission chiefs in those countries indicated greatest need in Austria, where 50,000 persons were reported homeless, $10,000 worth of the supplies (comprising 1,000 blanket, household linen, food and resettler's tool packages) were immediately released from the welfare organization's Austrian stockpiles. The other $1,500 worth of supplies, or 200 packages, were released for flood victims in Bavaria through the CARE Mission in West Germany.

Funds to cover these and additional supplies are urgently needed, Coles states. Contributions in any amount for Austrian or German flood relief may be sent to CARE, c-o Railway Express Agency, 135 S. State St. which accepts CARE orders as a public service. All donations will be acknowledged by CARE headquarters in New York City.

Atomic

all-night session in recent days, Knowland said he hoped and expected the administration measure overhauling the nation's atomic energy law could be passed during the day.

But if not, he said grimly, he would keep the Senate going nonstop.

Knowland kept one session going 86 hours last week in an effort to wear down the opposition.

A Democratic group, with enthusiastic aid from Morse and a little Republican help, first tried for an amendment to bar a proposed Atomic Energy Commission contract for private power to replace Tennessee Valley current supplied to atomic installations.

After losing that fight, the critics of the measure have been trying to cut out for further study the whole domestic section of the bill, aimed at promotion of private atomic operations. There has been much less criticism of the foreign portions of the legislation, which would allow limited exchange of atomic weapons information with allies.

Anderson, holding his thumb and forefinger just a little apart, said "we were just that close" to action on the bill when Knowland made his motion to table last night.

"Now it's hopeless," he said.

"The only way you can stop debate now is through cloture, I would say."

And to do that, he noted, would take 20 more votes than the administration was able to muster on a debate-limiting move yesterday.

Under the Senate's cloture, or debate-limiting rule, each senator is allowed to speak on a bill and all amendments for only one hour.

Knowland tried to put the rule into effect yesterday to bring a halt to a debate now in its 13th day, but to do so he needed 64 votes, or two-thirds of the entire Senate membership.

As it turned out, he got only 44, and 42 votes were cast in opposition.

After cloture was rejected, the Senate began to act on the atomic bill and disposed of nearly a dozen amendments before the tabling of Morse's amendment brought a jarring halt.

The measure had been passed earlier in the day by the House along the lines requested by the administration.

Indications that Knowland's tabling motion had revived the do-or-die spirit of the bill's opponents in the Senate were confirmed by Anderson's words.

Church Lawn Fete Earns $400 Profit

Largest patronage ever counted at an annual lawn fete sponsored by young people of Epworth Methodist Church was chalked up Friday night when a crowd estimated at 1,500 gathered at "Our House," the church's youth center. Out of receipts of about $700, profit of $400 will go toward general overhead expenses of "Our House" and for housing for the Youth Fellowship members attending church camp during the summer.

Present for the event were Rev. S. M. Ingmire, a former pastor here, and Mrs. Ingmire from Worthington, now serving McKendree Church in Columbus. Greetings were extended by Rev. Ingmire after he was announced by Rev. W. C. Eyster, present pastor of the congregation here.

Entertainment included recorded music, accordion numbers by Jerry Maddox, pony rides for the children, "fish pond," a performing monkey, and other festival attractions. The house was open for inspection of the recently completed redecorating work which includes new drapes at the windows, new porch furniture, and a new stained glass window in the upstairs chapel.

A large number of young people worked on committees arranging for the lawn fete under the general co-chairmanship of Diana Jones and Roy Loudenslager.

Do Your Asbestos Shingles Need Painting? . . . then USE new . . .

Formulated with Pliolite S-5 made by the Goodyear Co.
DUTCH STANDARD
ASBESTOS SHINGLE AND MASONRY PAINT

Is a specially formulated product for painting asbestos shingles and all masonry surfaces such as stucco — cement — brick or stone. Such surfaces usually contain large amounts of alkali and lime which, together with moisture, act to destroy ordinary paint films. Through the use of Pliolite S-5, a synthetic rubber resin made by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, it is now possible to make this special paint which resists these film destroying factors.

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH
Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. FASTEETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. Dad Doesn't Want To Be President, Adlai's Son Says

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—John Fell Stevenson, the son of Adlai Stevenson, says his father "doesn't want to be president."

Young Stevenson, here with his father on an Alaskan vacation, yesterday was asked what his father would do if he became president.

"He doesn't want to be president," the son of the Democrats' unsuccessful presidential candidate in 1952 replied. And then he added quickly:

"He isn't campaigning. He is just helping the party pay off the deficit from the last campaign."

Tribe Seeking Cushion in Opener Against Red Sox

Lemon Draws Assignment, Shooting for Victory No. 12

CLEVELAND (AP)—With precious little to show for a month's hard work, the Indians seek to cushion their American League lead as Cleveland opens a series tonight against the Boston Red Sox.

Now, as exactly a month ago, the Tribe is a game and a half ahead of the New York Yankees.

The New Yorkers, however, are fair game tonight for the Chicago White Sox, who have given them many a mauling, while the Tribe can flaunt a 13-1 record at the Red Sox.

Yet the Red Sox are far from impotent, as the Indians learned a week ago in a 16-inning marathon that ended 5-5 when curfew was sounded near 1 o'clock in the morning, and in a 7-7 contest that afternoon, called in the ninth inning because of rain. But the Indians, in a subsequent doubleheader beat Boston, 6-3 and 5-2.

The game-and-a-half differential stands, despite a 30-day period in which:

The Yanks piled up a 13-game winning streak, longest in the majors this season.

The Indians lost four straight in Chicago, just prior to the mid-season All-Star Game break.

Injuries were suffered by Bob Lemon, Mike Garcia and George Strickland.

Hurt by a thrown ball in Yankee Stadium during the Tribe's 8-2 victory last Friday night, Strickland suffered a double fracture of the lower jaw, and the team's physician, Dr. Don Kelly, says he will be out for an indefinite period.

Bob Lemon seeks his 12th victory tonight, facing the Red Sox' rookie Frank Sullivan.

The Indians took a 2-1 beating last night in an exhibition game with the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Cards appeared here for the first time since 1936, when a rookie pitcher named Bob Feller struck out eight of their batters in three innings of the exhibition.

The National leaguers' victory last night was on a two-run homer by Rip Repulski, blasted in the fourth inning off Art Houtteman, who gave up six hits in five innings. Repulski's homer came with two out and Stan Musial, who had singled, on base.

Wally Westlake belted a homer inthe second, for the Indians' sole run.

While Mike Garcia sat on the bench beaming over the birth yesterday morning of his first child, the Cleveland pitcher received news that his father had died in California.

He had visited his wife, Gerda, and the new six-pound, three-ounce boy, Michael Martin, born at Lakewood Hospital.

His father, Merced Garcia, 65, died at Visalia, Calif., after a long illness. He had been a trainer and breeder of horses. The elder Garcia also is survived by four daughters and two other sons.

Track Events, Basketball on Video Schedule

NEW YORK (AP)—College basketball and track are going to join football on big-time television this winter.

The American Broadcasting Co. lifted the wraps a little from the plan they used to lure the NCAA's big football program from the National Broadcasting Co. and it showed a 26-week winter and spring schedule of college sports.

The joint announcement by ABC and the NCAA came yesterday.

Robert H. O'Brien, executive vice president of ABC, and Les Arries, the network's sports director, said plans for the additional sports shows were not yet complete. But Arries said it probably would begin with the LaSalle-Niagara basketball game Dec. 11.

Other possibilities for the Saturday telecasts, Arries said, include the Dartmouth Winter Carnival, the Penn and Drake Relays, the IRA Regata at Syracuse, the Big Ten-Pacific Coast Track Meet and the Intercollegiate Rodeo at Colorado A&M.

ABC televised a college basketball game each week during last season over a network that covered the East and Midwest.

Trade circles said ABC paid about two million dollars for the football TV rights and speculated that the extra college shows probably swung the deal away from NBC. NBC has countered with a Saturday schedule of Canadian pro football.

Mays, Mantle Lead Sluggers

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mays of the New York Giants and Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees, two of baseball's outstanding center fielders, topped the major leagues in slugging today with home runs largely responsible for their leads.

Slugging averages—based on total bases divided by official times at bat—compiled by The Associated Press disclosed that Mays has hit for 244 total bases in 353 trips to the plate for a pace-setting National League mark of .691.

Willie, who heads both circuits in homers with 34, also has produced 16 doubles and six triples among his 114 safeties.

Mantle's record shows 201 total bases in 340 at bats for a .591 average, the leading American League figure. Mickey numbers 12 doubles, 10 triples and 20 home runs among his 109 hits. He shares the lead in circuit blows with Larry Doby of Cleveland.

Brooklyn's Duke Snider, another brilliant center fielder, is right behind Mays in the National League slugging competition with a .686 percentage.

Mickey Vernon of Washington is runnerup in the American League with a .545 slugging average.

Indianapolis Nips Toledo, Hikes Lead

By The Associated Press

The Louisville Colonels fell back in their bid to gain American Association contention, losing 6-4 to Kansas City Monday night while the league-leading Indianapolis Indians were going 11 innings for a 3-2 verdict over Toledo.

The two clashes were the only games scheduled.

The Indians upped their edge over the runnerup Colonels to 11 games by cashing in on two Toledo errors in the 11th.

Kansas City, totaling 13 hits, overcame a four-run Louisville outburst in the third inning with two runs in the fourth and three in the sixth.

Brooks End Maglie Jinx, Beat Giants

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

The possibility of a Giant collapse was pooh-poohed by Manager Leo Durocher today but New York fans had cause for alarm.

A humiliating 9-1 loss to Brooklyn last night stretched the slump-ridden Giants losing streak to five straight and chiseled their first-place lead over the Dodgers to only three.

"I'm not worried about a thing," Durocher said after last night's loss. "We're still in a great spot. They've still got to catch us.

"Sure, we're in a little slump. But I think the worst is over. We were due to level off a bit the way we were going before the All-Star Game. Now we're back home for a long spell and everything will be all right."

The Dodgers' 15-hit victory was their first over Sal Maglie at Ebbets Field. Maglie had whipped them 10 straight times in Brooklyn.

Milwaukee's Braves, whose dimmed pennant chances began to flicker anew after their three-game sweep of the Giants over the past weekend, made it five in a row with a 3-1 victory over Pittsburgh. Gene Conley, Milwaukee's 6-foot-8 rookie right-hander, doled out four hits while Billy Bruton and Eddie Mathews were providing the offensive spark to move the third-place Braves to within 10½ games of the Giants.

Bruton opened the game with a triple off loser, Bob Purkey and scored on a single by Mathews. In the third, Bruton singled, stole second and scored on Mathews' second single. Doubles by Joe Adcock and Andy Pafko in the sixth accounted for Milwaukee's third run.

All other clubs had an off day as they girded themselves for the busy schedule today. The spotlight is on Chicago, where the second-place New York Yankees and third-place White Sox meet in the first of a three-game series. Cleveland, which leads the Yankees by a game and a half, is host to Boston's Red Sox, whom they've beaten 13 times in 14 meetings.

The Dodgers, who were scheduled to meet Chicago's Cubs this afternoon, made short work of Maglie last night, blasting him for 11 hits before sending him to the showers in the sixth inning. They continued their barrage on relievers Hoyt Wilhelm, Paul Giel and Al Corwin. Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson collected three hits apiece.

The Giants, who had whipped the Dodgers in their last six meetings, were limited to five hits by Carl Erskine.

Hitting Leaders Hike Margins

NEW YORK (AP)—Irv Noren of the Yankees and Brooklyn's Duke Snider have lengthened their leads in the major league batting races.

Noren today owns a commanding 34-point advantage over runnerup Minnie Minoso of the White Sox in the American League. The Yankee outfielder is swinging at a .358 clip as compared to Minoso's .324 mark.

Snider, after boasting a 10-point edge last week, now is 19 points ahead of his nearest competitor, Don Mueller of the Giants, in the National League hitting parade. The Dodgers' flychaser is batting .363, while Mueller stands at .344.

Noren, with 10 hits in 29 at bats, lost two points during the week. Minoso moved up from third by going 11-for-31 and gained two points. Cleveland's Bobby Avila, second last week, lost 21 points and fell to fourth at .320, one point behind third-ranking Mickey Mantle of the Yanks with .321.

Snider went 10-for-25 and increased his average two points. Mueller, meanwhile, remained second, but lost seven points by going 8-for-30. Six-times batting champion Stan Musial of the Cards advanced from fifth to third at .337, followed by his rookie teammate Wally Moon in fourth with a .336 mark.

THAT'S A LOT OF HAY

OCEANPORT, N. J. (AP) — It is almost as expensive to keep horses in hay as it is to keep some blondes in diamonds. A check of the bills at Monmouth Park shows that it costs a minimum of $5,000 a year to stable and train the average race horse for one year.

New Medalist Record Hit in Women's Event

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind (AP) — Pat Lesser, 20-year-old former women's intercollegiate golf champion, carried the medal into today's first round of the Women's Western Amateur Tournament and it represented the best qualifying performance in the 54-year-old event.

She scored two eagles yesterday in the course of a 3-under-par 72 round that was a stroke under the WWGA amateur record shared by several players. It also was a new women's mark for Broadmoor Country Club, although the field of 144 played from the back of the men's tees.

Miss Lesser, tall brunette who plays on the Seattle University men's golf team, got her sub-par card in spite of a double-bogey 6 on the 18th hole.

Carol Diringer of Tiffin, Ohio, runnerup in the 1948 tourney to Louise Suggs, before the latter turned pro, had the second-best qualifying score of 74, and nobody else broke par.

Her first round opponent was Betty Kerby, Akron, Ohio, who shot 81.

Mrs. Maurice Glick, champion of Baltimore five times, equaled par 75 and today opposed Beverly Gammon of St. Paul, Minn. who had an 82.

Mickey Wright of LaJolla, Calif., was the fourth-best qualifier at 76. Defending champion Claire Doran of Cleveland was tied with three other players a stroke back. Miss Doran's first-round opponent was Polly Martin of St.Clairsville, Ohio, who qualified with 82.

Fights Last Night

BROOKLYN — Carmelo Costa, 129, Brooklyn, outpointed Vic Toweel, 133, South Africa, 10.

NEW YORK — Paul Andrews, 175¾, Buffalo, topped Yvon Durelle, 166½, Baie St. Anne, New Brunswick, 5.

LOS ANGELES — Sgt. J. B. Reed, 193½, Vallejo, Calif., outpointed Jake Williams, 187, Los Angeles, 10.

Toweel's Debut In U.S. Ruined By Brooklynite

NEW YORK (AP) — Vic Toweel looks like you would expect an ex-champion to look at 26 and young Carmelo Costa of Brooklyn has all the earmarks of a real comer.

Toweel at 133 pounds was 15 over the weight he held when he lost his world bantam crown to Jimmy Carruthers in '52. He was slow in contrast to the clever 20-year-old hit-and-run artist who is unbeaten in 25 pro fights and a fast rising featherweight hope.

But Toweel showed the willing style of a mauler despite his loss to Costa on a unanimous decision in a 10-rounder at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway last night. It was Toweel's first fight out of his native South Africa.

Away from the ring since December, Toweel was rusty. If he hadn't twisted his right ankle — he claimed referee Petey Scalzo stepped on it—he might have come on to make it a close finish.

As it was, judge Joe Agnello had it 8-2, referee Scalzo 6-3-1 and judge Artie Schwartz 5-4-1, all for Costa. The AP card was 7-2-1 for the kid from Brooklyn who has 22 victories and three draws in his brief career. The crowd of 850 paying $1,210 agreed with the verdict.

Paulie Andrews of Buffalo, N. Y., breezed past Canadian Yvon Durelle for a knockout in 1:06 of the fifth round last night at St. Nicholas Arena, finishing the bout with a right to the head. The Canadian was never in it, losing every round on the cards of judges Joe Eppy and Americo Schiavone and referee Abe Simon.

Andrews weighed 175¾, Durelle 166½ for the televised bout witnessed by a crowd of 1,500. No receipts were announced.

LaRue Downs CCM 8-6 in Teen Contest

LaRue's Marion County Teen Leaue entry pounded out an 8-6 verdict over the Caledonia - Claridon-Martel combine last night at the winners' diamond.

The CCM squad grabbed a 4-0 lead with one tally in the second inning and three in the third. LaRue came back with a single in the fourth and three in the fifth to knot the count. A two-run burst by the visitors in the top of the sixth was overcome when the home team exploded for four in the bottom of the frame.

Isom was the winning hurler and went all the way for LaRue. Gene Hunt and Gail Castle shared the mound duties for the losers. Herrick belted a double and single to lead the LaRue offense while Tate added a double. Hunt and Castle each knocked out a pair of two-base hits for the losers and Jerry Gorby added a pair of singles.

The same clubs will meet Thursday at 6 p.m. at LaRue in a double header.

Burkemo, Harbert Meet For PGA Tourney Title

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)— Chick Harbert and Wally Burkemo, two golfers who thrive on the kind of competition where you face the other fellow and try to beat him down, meet today in the final match of what may be the best-played PGA Championship in the postwar era.

It is the second man-to-man clash between these two, who live and work scarcely 10 miles apart in suburban Detroit, and the third PGA final for each.

In yesterday's grueling 36-hole semifinals, Burkemo, the defending champion, almost crushed Cary Middlecoff with one brief string of birdie shooting, let him get away and then came back to win on the 37th. Harbert, twice runner-up but never a winner in this tournament, had to go clear to the 36th green to down Tommy Bolt, 1 up.

Burkemo and Harbert clashed in the second round of the 1951 PGA at Oakmont, and the blonde, bright blue-eyed Burkemo won on the 19th hole. That was when Wally, playing his first championship, went all the way to the final before he took a 7 and 6 drubbing from Sam Snead.

Burkemo only lasted until the third round the next year, when it was Harbert's turn to go to the final, but he took the title last year at Birmingham, Mich. beating Felice Torza, 2 and 1.

Against Bolt yesterday, Harbert gained a 2-up lead at the 27-hole mark and then started to shoot steady pars until the holes ran out.

That admirable strategy didn't work. Bolt matched the pars for seven holes, then, when it was a case of win or quit, he sank an almost unbelievable 40-foot putt for a birdie on the 35th. Both hit the final green in two shots and Harbert, the pressure now on him, ended the match by ramming a 12-footer into the cup.

Burkemo, starting the afternoon round, went from 1 down at the 20th to 3 up at the 25th by shooting birdies on four of five holes. But after the 30th he seemed to be tiring.

When Middlecoff rammed an approach stiff on the 36th green the match was square.

On the extra hole, however, Burkemo, outdriven by some 30 yards, laid his approach within nine inches of the cup for a sure birdie. Middlecoff couldn't match that.

Epworth Clips Church League Leaders, Brethren Take Verdict

Epworth and Church of the Brethren turned in Church League victories last night at Garfield Park.

Epworth edged Trinity 12-11 while Church of the Brethren trimmed Greenwood 7-1.

Nine runs in the third frame, coupled with a tally in the second and two markers in the third, accounted for Epworth's win. Epworth got its total on eight hits while Trinity scored twice in the second, four times in each of the third and fourth frames, and once in the sixth on 10 bingles.

Four hits, two walks, an error and a hit batsman figured in Epworth's big third frame. Two of Don Poorman's three hits came in the frame, Milan Gorby and Bob England homered for the losers.

Three first inning runs were all that D. Ballenger needed in hurling Church of the Brethren to its win over Greenwood. Ballenger stopped the losers on three hits and was touched for the only run by Greenwood in the sixth when Ferriman homered. A 13-hit attack off Mel Donaugh resulted in three runs in the first, one in the third and three in the sixth.

Junior Ballenger collected three hits and Ward two hits for the winners.

Yesterday's STARS

Pitching — Carl Erskine, Brooklyn Dodgers, gave up only five hits and uncarned run as the Dodgers slued the New York Giants' lead to three games with a 9-1 victory.

Batting — Eddie Mathews, Milwaukee Braves, drove in two runs with two singles as the Braves defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-1.

Galion, Shelby Win

Local Little League All-Stars Dropped From Tournament

Both Marion squads in Little League District 3 tournament action were unsuccessful in bids to capture opening games last night.

The American League All-Stars were eliminated 2-1 by Galion at Robert Scott Field while the National Leaguers were ousted with a 10-5 loss to Shelby there.

Galion and Shelby will battle there tonight in the tourney semi-finals while the final between the winner of this action and western section—either Van Wert, St. Mary's or a team from Paulding County—will be played at Robert Scott Field Thursday night.

With the elimination of the two Marion squads, Little League action will resume here. Only a game remains in each league with American League play to be completed Wednesday night and National League action to end Friday.

Unearned Runs

A pair of unearned Galion runs in the third frame caused the downfall of the American League club.

Gene Dulin, Marion hurler, had been cruising along with a no-hit performance until John Miller opened the Galion third with a clean single into left center. Don Gray then belted a double to left and when the leftfielder uncorked a wild throw to third, Miller scampered home with the first run. A few minutes later, Gray was safe at the plate when the Marion catcher dropped the ball.

Dulin settled down to retire the side on an infield grounder and two strike outs. From that point on, the local pitcher allowed only two runners to reach base.

A wild pitch allowed a Galion runner to reach second in the fourth but a strike out and pop fly to first base erased him. In the sixth inning, Julian Trosper banged out the fourth hit off Dulin after two of his mates had whiffed. Dulin ended the Galion threat by whiffing Rhinehart for his 12th strikeout. He hit one batter but walked none.

Billy Bryant, lanky Galion hurler, had his fast ball working and was just as effective as Dulin. The winning pitcher gave up only two hits, both by Marion's Larry Ishida. The first safety came after two were gone in the first frame. Ishida's hit was followed by a walk to Pete Porietas and a passed ball to put runners on second and third but Bryant notched the second of 14 strikeouts to prevent any scoring.

Ishida's second base knock came in the fifth after Dulin and Don Kern had drawn bases on balls. The blow went to centerfield driving in Dulin and on the throw in Kern reached third and Ishida went to second. A strikeout ended the Marion threat.

Bryant gave up six walks but tightened up in the pinch. Seven Marion base runners were left stranded. In all but one inning, the second, Marion managed to put at least one runner on the bases.

Eight runs in the final two frames enabled Shelby to whack Marion's National League All-Stars 10-5.

The locals were holding a 5-2 bulge prior to the fifth and sixth frames but the Shelby squad took the lead with four runs on two hits in the fifth and clinched the victory with four more runs on five hits in the sixth.

Stout went the route for Shelby and held the Marion National Leaguers scoreless the final three frames. In all, he allowed only three hits—one in each of the first three innings—while striking out six and walking seven.

Suspension Lifted

Harl "Rocky" Evans, against whom a suspension had just been lifted by Marion Baseball for Boys Commission, toed the rubber for the locals.

Evans, who aided the Marion cause by socking a two-run homer in the first inning, surrendered nine hits to the winners. He had held Shelby to two hits over the first four innings prior to the fateful fifth and sixth frames, one in the first when Shelby scored its first run and one in the fourth when Shelby netted its second tally.

Evans fanned 10 while walking two.

Pfahler caused the most trouble for Evans. The Shelby centerfielder tripled home the first Shelby run in the first, doubled and later scored in the fourth, homered in the fifth to cap the four-run inning and doubled in the sixth. The three other men scoring in the frame had reached base on two Marion errors and a double. A pair of singles and three doubles plus an error brought in four runs in the sixth for the winners.

Dave Howison's single following a walk and error accounted for a Marion run in the second while Stan Larkin drove in both Marion runs in the third on a single following a pair of walks and error.

Larkin, Howison and Evans collected he only Marion hits while Pfahler had four and five other Shelby players one each.

Idea Withdrawn

Majors Drop Hank's Plan; Braves Get All-Star Clash

NEW YORK (AP) — The major leagues have dropped Hank Greenberg's idea of an interleague schedule, at least for 1955, and have agreed on a new rule to ban signing of college baseball players who have started their second academic year.

Milwaukee gets the 1955 All-Star Game, at a date to be determined later, and the problems of Caribbean winter baseball are to be solved at a final conference today between the Latin delegates and Commissioner Ford Frick.

The Caribbean leagues agree to end their seasons and playoffs by Feb. 15 for permission to use no more than five players from each major league team, of which at least two will be rookies who have appeared in less than 45 games.

All is set except the actual final agreement between Frick and the delegates. Player requests to deal directly with the Caribbean teams were rejected.

Frick said Greenberg's interleague proposal was withdrawn by the Cleveland General Manager at the joint meeting after being discussed at each separate league meeting.

The college rule represents a victory for Everett (Eppie) Barnes, Colgate athletic director, who fought for many years to get some protection for college players.

President Ulysses S Grant looked upon golf as good exercise, but he asked "what's the little white ball for"

Battle Looming For Control of A's Franchise

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Roy Mack emerged in his own light today as the current strong man of the Philadelphia Athletics.

The normally quiet, unassuming executive vice president of the American League club stuck his jaw out a country mile at the midsummer baseball meetings in New York yesterday and announced the A's are not for sale, a half a hundred rumors notwithstanding.

And if that wasn't pain enough talk, the eldest son of Connie Mack declared he was in the throes of a family squabble with his younger brother Earle to obtain complete control of the club and change the downtrodden Athletics into a pennant contender.

Several weeks ago, Manager Eddie Joost had a row with outfielder Gus Zernial over the big slugger's placement in the batting lineup. The argument was carried into Roy Mack's office.

When Zernial and Joost had departed, Roy was asked by sports writers what it was all about. His rather wistful comment.

"Nobody ever tells me anything."

Apparently something new has been added. Yesterday it was Roy doing the telling and in no uncertain terms. Admitting that he had discussed the future of the A's with a syndicate headed by Arnold Johnson of Chicago, who has been pushing Kansas City for a major league franchise, as well as several groups from points west, Roy said

"When I say we are definitely not selling, I mean that. It's easy enough to kick a guy when he's down, but I'm not going to stay down.

"I'm going to battle for all-out control of this club, especially since the 'Save the A's' has got going."

This last was a reference to an effort by local civic and business leaders to retain the club in Philadelphia.

As for his hassle with his brother, Roy said:

"Some time ago, my brother Earle said he would give me an option to buy his stock. We went so far as to practically have the options drawn up for signature. Then he backed down. I don't know why but he did."

The A's stock is divided just equally among Connie Sr., Earle and Roy.

"Go ask Roy where he is going to get the money," was General Manager Earle's comment.

Cummins Wins Country Club's Handicap Play

Lou Cummins was winner of the Marion Country Club handicap tournament which was completed Sunday after some five weeks of action.

Cummins, B flight winner, topped Russ Reichardt, A flight winner, and Dr. Charles Wilson, C flight winner, in 18-hole medal handicap play Sunday.

Both Cummins and Reichardt had gross scores of 83 but Cummins had the best score with handicap) Wilson fired a 96.

The team of Barney Buettin and Mrs. Thelma Minard won a mixed foursome tournament yesterday. Second in the 18-hole flight were Mr. and Mrs. Jim McNoldy while John Rife and Mrs. Mae Frazier were third.

In a nine-hole flight in the next foursome, the team of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cripps tied with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frye for top honors.

In a mixed foursome tournament last Thursday in which 30 couples took part, Mr. and Mrs. Don Yoder were winners. It marked the first time this year twilight golf was played at the Country Club. Second in the tournament were Mr. and Mrs. Clare Williams, third Dr. and Mrs. Carl Sheehe, and tied for fourth were Mr. and Mrs. Frye and Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Martin.

Cripps and Vernon Street were winners of the regular Saturday afternoon blind partner tournament. Robert LaMarche and Les Vandommelen, William Foster and Jasek Weis and E. L. Mitchell and Joe Scandling tied for second.

The club championship begins today. Tiffin is here Wednesday, Aug. 11, for an inter-club match.

FACTORY BLOWS UP

FUKUOKA, Japan (AP) — A fireworks factory blew up yesterday at nearby Yama, killing seven workers and injuring two seriously, Kyodo news service reported. Damage was estimated at $12,500.

Alloy and G&G Notch Verdicts In Pony League

Alloy trimmed VFW 8-3 and G & G Homes bested Clark Metal 5-1 in Pony League action last night at Lincoln Park.

Jed Middleton hurled G & G Homes to the opening game victory on a three-hitter. He fanned seven while walking two.

Loser was Mike Glasco, who surrendered eight hits to the winners. He struck out eight while walking four.

Two runs in the opening frame were all that Middleton needed for the victory. Clark Metal's lone run came in the second.

Anspaugh had three hits for the winners.

Jim Harris went the distance for Alloy in the nightcap in posting the win on a two-hitter. He struck out 16 while walking five and hitting a batter.

Loser was Gene Remmy, who failed to finish the first inning. Jim Hough came on in the first, during which Alloy scored four times on a hit, and hurled until the seventh when Ed Pacha took over.

In all, the hurlers were rocked for six hits. They struck out two while walking nine.

Legion Golfers Move to First In Loop Action

American Legion Post 162 took over top spot in the Marion Industrial Golf League in action yesterday.

The first-round winners edged past Marion Engineer Depot No 1 into top spot with 18½ points by defeating Marion Engineer Depot No 3 6½-1½.

At the same time, Marion Engineer Depot No. was losing to Tecumseh Products 3½-4½.

In other action yesterday, Marion Engineer Depot No 2 downed Marion Power Shovel 6-2. Marion Industries won out over Erie Railroad 6-2 and B F Goodrich edged Gulf Refining 4½-3½.

Low net scores were a 29 by B Caldwell and 30's by R. Dutt and D. Roecker.

The standings now show Legion Post 162 in first with 18½ points and Marion Engineer Depot No 1 in the runner-up spot with 17. Then come B F. Goodrich, 160; Marion Industries, 14; Marion Engineer Depot No 2, 12; Tecumseh, 11; Gulf Refining, 9½; Marion Engineer Depot No. 3, 7½; Erie Railroad, 7½; and Marion Power Shovel, 6.

Marion Hurler Posts No-Hitter In Teen Action

Butch Simpson recorded his second no-hitter of the season in hurling his Fraternal Order of Police squad teammates to a 13-2 victory over Morral in a County Teen League contest at Morral last night.

Simpson, who hurled his first no-hitter against the same Morral team opening the season, struck out 12 over the five-inning route while walking five.

The losers spoiled his shutout in the first inning with two runs. Two walks, an error and fielder's choice accounted for the runs.

The tilt was called after five innings when the locals piled up more than a 10-run margin. Marion netted a run in the first off starter Craycraft, scored eight times on seven hits in a big third frame, and added three runs in the fourth and one in the fifth.

Marion pounded out 12 hits off the offerings of Craycraft and Hensel, who came on in the fourth.

The pair of hurlers struck out four while walking four and hitting two batters.

Gary Williams paced the Marion hitting attack with four hits in four trips to the plate. Bob Messner had three while Simpson collected two. Tex Burns, Ken Ellwood, and Martin also had Marion hits.

Last night's no-hitter marked the third posted by a Fraternal Order of Police hurler this year. Dave Gallimore was author of a 7-0 job against Clarndon-Caledonia-Martel two weeks ago.

Marion, Bucyrus Men Among Leaders at Tiffin

Marion's Bobby Hinton placed seventh in the 20-lap feature at the Tiffin Speedway Friday night. The event was won by Morris Van-Vlerah of Bellevue. Paul Bertok of Genoa was second.

Hinton was second in the third heat race, finishing behind Ed Porter of Republic.

Race Sessions Aided by New Harness Ruling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — County and independent fairs featuring part - mutuel betting on harness races will get a break from the state racing commission.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche yesterday signed an emergency order allowing the commission to waive urine tests for harness race winners. The commission indicated it would approve the waiver today.

A requirement for saliva tests will remain effective. The tests are used to detect illegal stimulation of horses.

Lausche said his order would permit the commission to pay veterinarians for tests instead of county agricultural societies.

Racing permits issued to date include the Jackson County Fair which opened last Wednesday in Wellston and Delaware, Fayette, Miami and Knox county fairs.

Pending applications include Auglaize, Williams, Marion and Champaign counties and the Attica Independent Fair in Seneca County.

Rhodes Blast Brings Retort

A. W. Marion Denies Park Funds Unused

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Republican gubernatorial candidate James A. Rhodes yesterday said the state division of parks failed to use considerable cash appropriated by the Legislature for improvements.

Rhodes said appropriations in nearly 10 years ending last June 30 totaled more than 15 million dollars, of which nearly $2,180,000 was unused and allowed to lapse into the state's general fund as unneeded.

This charge was denied by A. W. Marion, state director of natural resources. In a statement to newsmen, Marion said:

"The figures are in error and completely misleading. Only $15,000 of 'additions and betterments' money appropriated to the parks division has been permitted to lapse since the division was created five years ago. And even that was reappropriated to other park use."

Crawford County Reports Polio Case

BUCYRUS — A nine-year-old Crawford County boy is being treated in Cleveland City Hospital for a combination of bulbar and spinal type polio, Crawford County Health Department officials announced today.

The victim, the first reported case in the county this year, is Ronald Horning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Horning of near Crestline. He was taken to the Cleveland Hospital, Sunday, after having been ill about 11 days.

Dr. Max Garver of Mansfield told Crawford County health authorities the boy became ill with a sore throat on July 11. A few days later he became sick to his stomach. He is suffering from paralysis of the palate and left leg. He has a sister, Ruth, 16.

UNDERGOES POLIO TESTS

GALION — Tommy Reid, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reid of Galion, is undergoing tests for polio at Children's Hospital, Columbus. He was admitted to the hospital Monday for observation, after being ill for four days and not responding to treatment here. Diagnosis of the boy's illness will be made at the Columbus hospital.

WOMAN DROWNS

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP)—Miss Harriett A. Elliott of New Castle, Pa., drowned yesterday in the Ohio River when her car plunged over a high bank at a roadside park. She was about 65. Arlie Davis, 29, of Middleport said he was driving on Ohio 7 behind Miss Elliott's car when she apparently stepped on the brake and he struck the car's rear fender. The car left the road and tumbled over the cliff into about 25 feet of water. Davis said he tried unsuccessfully to save the woman.

GETS GAMBLING DATA

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Information collected by City Council's gambling investigation committee today was turned over to County Prosecutor Frank H. Kearns for grand jury action. Council's investigation has centered around pinball machine operations.

Caledonia Doesn't Fear Bypass Will Hurt Business

Village Discovers Work On Route 30 Actually Stimulating Factor

Caledonia residents aren't sorry U. S. Route 30-S is being erased from the village map.

At first, some of the 655 villagers resented the idea of the federal highway being re-routed to bypass them. They believed the bypass would draw business away from their town. Now, they're not so sure that the roadway, which is being straightened and rerouted, to eliminate some sharp curves and possible highway accidents, was responsible for stirring up much business in the town, anyway.

HIGHWAY OR no highway, they believe, business in the prosperous little community will go on as it has in the past. In fact, another new business, a supermarket, is scheduled to open in Caledonia in the near future. The modern grocery which will feature a spacious parking lot is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Reece of Kirkpatrick, former Caledonia residents. The Reeces operated a grocery six years ago in the village.

In addition to the new store, established businesses in Caledonia are numerous. A clothing store, the Jay Kay, owned by Mrs. Harlo Shumaker of Martel and George K. Bowman of Marion, is almost ready to mark its first birthday and the Fixit Shop was started just this month.

The Claridon Township village has a bank, two grain elevators, two hardware stores, a drug store, four restaurants and taverns, several grocery stores and a television store. Last September, one of the village's landmarks, the Garber Sisters Grocery, changed ownership after 24 years of management by the Misses Hattie, Laura and Loduska Garber. The store is now owned by John Furniss of near Caledonia.

CALEDONIA'S CHURCHES are representative of a well-rounded religious program and include the Memorial Methodist, Universalist, St. Lawrence O'Toole Catholic and the Church of Christ. It has a branch office of the Marion Public Library and boasts a volunteer fire department with two trucks.

The story of what happened to the Caledonia train depot and the activity which used to center about it is the typical tale of a small town. With the modern machine age and Diesel engines to replace the oldtime models, refueling stations along the way were forgotten. The railroads complained about the frequent stops at small towns. Finally, the depots were passed by and abandoned. Where the railroad once played an important part in the lives of the villagers, it now is almost overlooked.

At one time, Caledonia had a population of nearly 1,000. It had a saw mill, a hoop factory and a cooper shop for making barrels. The modern age substituted cans, cardboard and plastics.

HOTELS, which once were popular with overnight guests on "lengthy" 100-mile trips, livery barns, brick and tile mills, tailor shops, a furniture store, meat markets and bakeries which once lined the village streets also became pages of history.

Eighty - one - year - old Charles Pace and his wife claim the honor of living in the same house longer than any of their Caledonia neighbors. The Paces have resided in the same house for 57 years. They'll note their 61st wedding anniversary in September.

Pace and another oldtime Caledonia resident, Royal Stone, have friendly quarrels quite often about who can remember the earliest piece of village history. Pace and his brother, David, who also lives in Caledonia, were engaged for 30 years in the occupation of building fence. They set up fence in Marion, Morrow and Crawford Counties at an estimated average of 50 miles of fence per season. A season consisted of the summer months. In wintertime, they reverted to cutting wood for area residents.

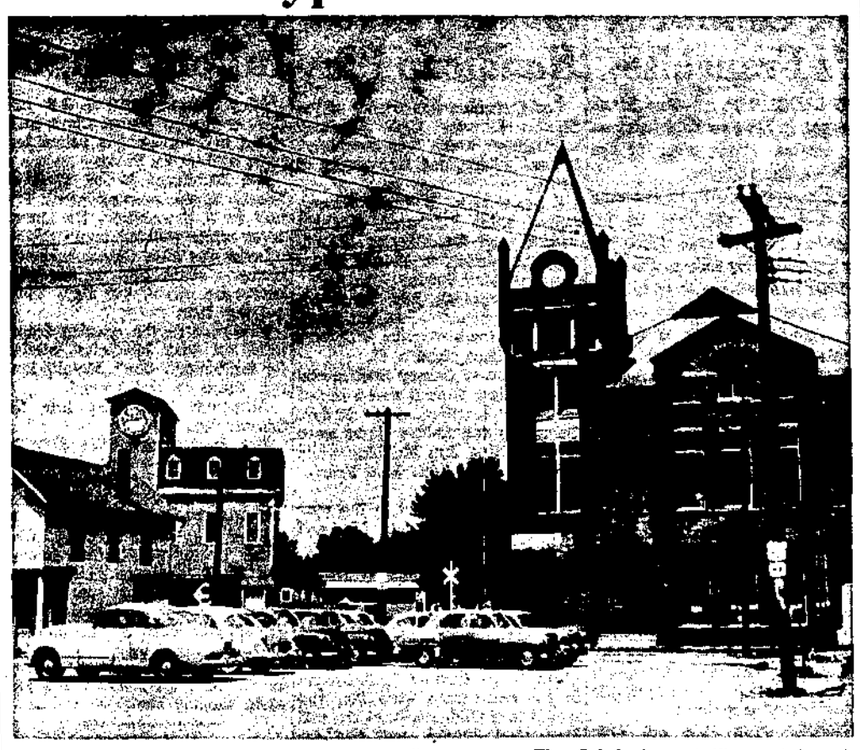
STONE'S FATHER, Dr. W. S. Stone, and Warren G. Harding's father practiced medicine at Caledonia at the same time. The Stones lived in the house on the south side of the Methodist Church, while the Harding boy, who later became President of the United States, lived in the house on the north side of the church, Stone recalled.

Caledonia was incorporated in 1873, about 53 years after the first settlers came. In 1830, John Parcel had purchased 40 acres, the land upon which Caledonia was originally laid, at a lost of $145. He cleared a few acres of the northern portion and a couple of years later opened a country store. The town was surveyed and platted in 1834. The village postoffice was first named Van Buskirk after Lawrence Van-Buskirk, who served as postmaster from 1832-42, but its name was changed to Caledonia in 1835.



LOOKING NORTH ON THE CALEDONIA village square. The Caledonia postoffice and branch office of the Marion Public Library can be seen in the background. A federal highway which makes two sharp turns, one at the square and another about a block away, is in the process of being rerouted around the village.

Man Put on Probation By Common Pleas Judge

Ted Caldwell, 28, of 851 N. State St., indicted by the grand jury on a charge of assault with intent to rob, was placed on five years' probation Monday in Common Pleas Court when he changed his plea to guilty.

He was charged with assaulting Harry Wormald, 70, who operates a service station five miles west of Marion, on May 26, with intent to rob.

Pair Caught as Car Crashes Near Dover

DOVER, Ohio (AP)—Two boys who were reported to have escaped from the Boys Industrial School at Lancaster were picked up at Newcomerstown early today after wrecking a car in which they were driving.

The pair, Gary Holdren and Philip Cownden, both 17, were brought to a hospital here and placed under guard. Holdren received a fractured leg and Cownden was reported shaken up and bruised.

Sheriff's deputies said Patrolman Clarence Miller of Newcomerstown arrested the pair after receiving word that they were heading that way in a stolen automobile.

He noticed the car when it came through town and gave chase. The car slipped into a ditch a few miles outside of town and Miller took the two into custody.

Deputies said another youth escaped with the pair and was being sought in Tuscarawas County. He was believed to have been traveling in another car.

Baby Abandoned

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP)—An incubator still remains the only home for a thin, 3-day-old infant abandoned on a porch here Sunday. Police continued their search for the boy's parents.

He was found at dawn wrapped snugly in a blanket with this note pinned to his clothes

"Please give our little boy the kind of home we could not offer him. We love him very much."

CALF REPORTED MISSING

Report of a calf being missing from the Union Stockyards was received Monday by the Marion County sheriff's office. The calf was described as a white-faced Hereford.

Galion Firm Given Crawford Contract

BUCYRUS — Crawford County Commissioners announced here today that the contract for furnishing a Chevrolet station wagon for use at the county children's home at Galion has been awarded to the Galion Motor Sales, Inc., on its base bid of $1,494.60, only 40 cents less than the next lowest base bid of $1,495 submitted by Workman Chevrolet, Inc., Crestline. With accessories added, the car will cost 1,696.60.

Base bids of $1,595 were submitted by Kibler Motor Sales, Bucyrus, and of $1,682 by High Motor Sales at New Washington.

The original price of the car being furnished by the Galion firm is $2,411 less federal tax of $161 and an allowance of $755 for a 1950 Chevrolet being traded in. Added to the base price was $202 for a two-tone paint job, undercoating and automatic transmission.

Commissioners said Marvin Adams, home superintendent, had requested the station wagon to aid in hauling children because the school bus is overcrowded, and to haul supplies.

I never found the companion that was so companionable as solitude.—Thoreau

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavy demand for steels at higher prices today encouraged a rise in the stock market.

In the early afternoon, advances between 1 and 3 points were frequest. There were scattered losses, but only in special instances did they go past a point.

Improvement in prices brought a quickened demand that sent volume to a pace past yesterday's 2,110,000 shares traded in a mixed market.

Going up with the steels were most motors, rubbers, aircrafts, distillers, coppers, tobaccos, railroads, oils, building materials.

Among higher stocks were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, U.S. Rubber, Boeing, Schenley Industries, Westinghouse Electric, Vanadium, General Dynamics, Climax Molybdenum, Liggett & Myers, Santa Fe, Texas Pacific Land Trust, and U.S. Gypsum.

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT

Estate of Edward J. Ellington, Deceased

Notice is hereby given that Ellen J. Ellington has been appointed and qualified as Administratrix of the estate of Edward J. Ellington, late of Marion County, deceased.

Dated at Marion, Ohio, this 9th day of July, A.D. 1954.

Edward J. Ruzzo, Probate Judge, Marion County, Ohio.

Case No. 20616.
July 13,20,27,1954.

LEGAL NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Hospital Commissioners at the office of E. L. Mitchell, Secretary, Citizens Building, in Marion, Ohio, until twelve o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, of Friday, the 20th day of August, 1954, for all labor and material necessary for site improvement (lawns and plantings) of the Marion General Hospital.

Each bid must be inclosed in a sealed envelope, endorsed with the name of the bidder.

Bids will be publicly opened and read aloud at 12:30 o'clock P.M., E. S. T., of the 20th day of August, 1954, at the City Building in Marion, Ohio.

Copies of the specifications and other proposed contract documents are on file and open to public inspection at the Secretary's Office, Citizens Building, in Marion, Ohio.

Copies of the drawings and specifications and other contract documents may be obtained from Marion V. Packard, 2741 Fairfax Drive, Columbus 12, Ohio.

Each bid shall be accompanied with a bond, executed by a surety company, conditioned that if the contract be awarded on the bid tendered, then such bond shall secure any difference between the amount of such bid and the next higher bid, as required by Section 749 12 of the Revised Code of the State of Ohio, in case of the failure or refusal by the bidder to enter into a contract according to his bid, within such reasonable time as the Board may determine. The performance of each contract shall be secured by a surety company contract bond, approved by the Owner in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of 30 days after the opening thereof.

The right is reserved by the Board of Hospital Commissioners to reject any or all bids and to waive informalities.

Board of Hospital Commissioners, City-County, Marion, Ohio.
By: E. L. Mitchell, Secretary.

FOR YOUR INSPECTION — A beautiful home in a fine section of Marion, South. Three lovely bedrooms, a new bath, knotty pine sleeping porch and four closets up. A beautiful large living room with wood-burning fireplace, a very appealing dining room with built-in window seat, both covered with the finest carpet. Then a woman's delight in kitchen and breakfast room appointments, finished with knotty pine walls and birch cupboards, and a nice ironing room off the kitchen. I give up—words cannot describe the beauty of this home—but believe this—if you are looking for a home under $14,000 by all means look at this before you buy.

HERE'S ANOTHER BEAUTY—Three miles out of town on two acres and hard-top road. A beautiful ranch home, with double garage attached. Owner must move to town and will trade for similar home in town or will sell. Looks like a $16,000 home but is priced much less. Let us show you this.

Crow's Feet? How To Check Them!

Smooth Them Into Glamorous Accents For Your Smile

"Crow's-Feet," heretofore presumed to be an outrageous trick of Nature, may be the result of neglect. It is assumed that the most common cause of these youth-stealing lines is skin dryness, for when dryness is even partially overcome, "crow's-feet" become less noticeable and a more youthful look blooms in the face. By the new and simple process of properly handling dry skin (described below) the younger woman can help herself to iron out her "crow's-feet" and make them, in fact, glamorous accents for her smile. The older woman, too, by reducing her skin dryness, can soften the appearance of her "crow's-feet," thereby defeating her age to pleasing extent.

Understand Your "Crow's-Feet" and Dry Skin Then You Can Help Them

Skin dryness is caused, obviously, by an insufficiency of natural lubricants. And Nature has a hard time making enough of these essential lubricants to keep up with the rate at which dry atmosphere, improper cleansing and exposure take them away from your skin. "Crow's-Feet" then deepen and deepen. So you must ask these questions: How can I correct this deficiency so as to make sure that my skin will have enough of these vital substances? How can I help it to overcome its dryness? How can I help it to become more normally supple, soft and smooth, so my "crow's-feet" will show less than they do now? These questions have always been difficult to answer, until the discovery of Lanolin Plus Liquid, but now, because of Lanolin Plus Liquid, millions of women have younger-looking skins than they had prior to their use of it.

Why Lanolin Plus LIQUID Does Such Wonders for Your Skin

Lanolin Plus Liquid is not just lanolin. Instead, it is lanolin with a plus—a wonderful plus with a rich content of cholesterols, esters and other lubricants, joined by a patented process with other ingredients to give an unusual penetrating action. Consequently, Lanolin Plus Liquid is able to supply your skin with more than enough lubricants, including cholesterols and esters, to make up for those lost to improper cleansing, dry atmosphere and exposure. Only $1.00 plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

GIVE YOURSELF THIS HOME FACIAL TONIGHT —See a Difference Next Morning

1. Hold a hot washcloth to your face—particularly around your eyes—for a few seconds to open the pores. Notice how refreshed and relaxed your face feels.

2. Warm your bottle of Lanolin Plus Liquid under the hot water tap. Gently massage Lanolin Plus Liquid into your face and around your eyes until your skin begins to tingle. After a few minutes, wipe your face petal fresh and find it smoother.

3. Massage a few more drops of Lanolin Plus Liquid into your skin with emphasis around your eyes before retiring. Its gentle, penetrating action will work while you sleep . . . and you'll awaken next morning to find a new softness and elasticity, "crow's-feet" beginning to fade.

There is no question about it. Lanolin Plus Liquid will do wonders for YOUR skin. In fact, you could spend $1,000 and not get more beauty benefit than you get from a $1* bottle of Lanolin Plus Liquid. Get started tonight. Give yourself a Lanolin Plus Home facial. Check your "crow's-feet" NOW! SEE and FEEL the difference tomorrow morning. YOU WILL! (*Plus tax)

You'll Suddenly Seem To Have Grown An Entirely New And Flawless Skin!

You will be startled when you see yourself—your friends will be startled when they see YOU—and oh, how envious they will be!

And now comes a truly NEW liquid make-up that will do for you exactly what you want done

LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID MAKE-UP really covers the sins of your skin. Those tiny lines and imperfections you so thoroughly hate, vanish from sight. So amazing is the covering power of this heavenly liquid, you could, if you wished, use a shade lighter than your own skin and still have a perfect new-skin look. But it does two more beauty wonders for you:

1. It instantly imparts a kind of youth-giving radiance that is completely new. That is because its five shades are the living colors of your skin. They LOOK alive. The living shade most flattering to you is easy to find, too, as you will discover when you see them all.

2. LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID MAKE-UP containing pure Lanolin in a very effective form, helps to soften and smooth your skin every minute you wear it.

Imagine a make-up that not only gives you the appearance of having instantly grown a new, flawless and younger-looking skin, but that also makes your skin softer feeling and smoother looking. $1 plus tax at all cosmetic counters. Indeed, there is nothing in all the world like Lanolin Plus Liquid Make-Up.

Softer Hands Than He Ever Held Before

This Entirely new kind of lotion does wonders for your hands

Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion actually MAKES your hands smoother by making them actually softer. Amply rich in lanolin (yet not greasy at all), Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion performs its miracles by supplying an abundance of penetrating, lubricating cholesterols and esters to your hands. Results are unbelievable, until you see them yourself. Then, when you find he can't leave your hands alone, you'll KNOW how truly wonderful Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion really is. $1 plus tax at all cosmetic counters. Applicator pump free of extra charge is very handy. No cap to take off the bottle and put back in.

This New Liquid Cleanser Softens As It Cleanses

The fresh, clean feel of your skin after its first cleansing with this creamy liquid will make you promise yourself that you'll never again bother with other cleansing methods. For Lanolin Plus Liquid Cleanser, richly endowed with lanolin and its rich base of esters and cholesterols, penetrates your skin and softens as it cleanses Lanolin Plus Liquid Cleanser is compounded so that there is no harsh drying effect. Instead, it offers the wonderful lubricating influence of Lanolin itself that combats drying conditions due to lack of natural oils. There's a good reason why lanolin is so beneficial to your skin. It is almost identical to the natural oils of human skin. So when Nature's own lubricants are so closely duplicated, it's no wonder that your skin responds quickly and eagerly. LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID CLEANSER should be a "must" in your daily skin care. It's amazingly effective . . . delightfully refreshing . . . and so economical! Only one dollar plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

Totally New Kind Of Shampoo

Not only a perfect cleanser, but a beauty treatment for your hair, too. Fills your hair with millions of dancing highlights and puts new spring in your curls, at the same time making your hair not only beautifully manageable, but softer and more silken to the touch. Lanolin Plus Shampoo is $1 (no tax) at all cosmetic counters.

Be a Smoothie All Over From Top to Toe And Feel Better Dressed

(Your girdle slips on easier, too)

Every square inch of you will feel silky-smooth when you caress yourself with this lanolin-rich body lotion — after your bath. Lanolin Plus Body Lotion imparts a softness and exquisite loveliness that is new. You'll begin by slipping into your girdle with more ease and the feeling of luxury that follows somehow makes your clothes seem smarter than before. The large 12-ounce bottle of Lanolin Plus Body Lotion is only $1.50 plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

Between SHAMPOOS KEEP YOUR HAIR SHINING AND PERFECTLY MANAGEABLE

Date tonight? No time for a shampoo? Brush a few drops of Lanolin Plus for the Hair through your crowning glory and look more than lovely. Its lanolin action, too, of course, does wonders for your hair. Before or after shampoo, it makes and keeps your hair gleaming and more easily manageable than you ever believed it could be, regardless of how much exposure it has had to sun, wind or too much dry atmosphere. Men find it a wonderful grooming aid, too. Lanolin Plus for the hair is $1 plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

Good News For You

Who Prefer Cleansing Cream

Now you have a cleansing cream that replenishes your skin with a new supply of cholesterols and esters each time you use it. But this wonderful softening action is not at the expense of cleansing thoroughness. Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream for Dry Skin seems to dig out every tiny speck of dirt. So, if you have a dry skin and you prefer a cleansing cream, this one will give you immediate and beautiful results. Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream for Dry Skin is $1 plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

STEVE CANYON By Milton Caniff

CLARKE NETHERLAND! WHAT'S THIS ALL ABOUT? ARE YOU IN TROUBLE?
NOT ACTUALLY, SUMMER! I USED A HEEL TRICK TO LURE YOU AWAY FROM YOUR OFFICE... I HAD TO PUT IN A LITTLE STICK TIME HERE TO GET UP NERVE ENOUGH TO FACE YOU...
BUT YOU OWE ME NOTHING — I---
I OWE YOU AT LEAST SOME COMMON DECENCY! — I TRIED TO BE A FULL-TIME RAT, BUT I MUST HAVE SOME CONSCIENCE LEFT OVER FROM A CARELESS ANCESTOR...
MY NAME ISN'T CLARKE NETHERLAND... I WAS IN HOLLYWOOD TRYING TO KEEP FROM STARVING, WHEN AN AGENT TAPPED ME TO DO A PRIVATE JOB FOR A CLIENT
ALL I HAD TO DO WAS FLY TO A CERTAIN RESORT HOTEL, 'ACCIDENTALLY' MEET A GIRL WHO WOULD BE ARRIVING THERE...

Weather Is Made According to Order At Wisconsin Firm

LA CROSSE, Wis. — (UP)—A "house of weather magic" creates samples of the world's worst weather so scientists can develop machines to overcome it.

The Trane Company's new research and testing laboratory, in which equipment can be pre-tested for use anywhere from the North Pole to the tropics, has gone into operation here

The laboratory can duplicate a wide variety of temperature, humidity, pressure and air movement conditions

One of its two cold rooms permits the temperature to be driven down to 65 degrees' below zero

At the other extreme, the mercury can be skyrocketed to 2,500 degrees above zero in an atmosphere-controlled furnace

The furnace is expected to aid in research in new methods of fabricating heat exchangers designed to cope with increasingly high temperatures of new industrial processes. Donald C. Minard, president of Trane, said it may help, too, in harnessing atomic energy.

Heat exchange is vital in many industrial processes involving metals, chemicals, petroleum, foods and drugs, Minard said. While some industries must find ways to handle higher temperatures, processes in others demand temperatures 300 to 350 degrees below zero.

Robert LeBaron, assistant to the secretary of defense, told a dedication preview audience that "many new facets of industrial technology," including atomic energy, jet aircraft, guided missiles, space travel and electronics, are within the scope of the laboratory's work.

"In all of these," LeBaron said, "there is the common denominator of heat transfer — how to handle the heat of the atom — how to dissipate heat in high speed air flight — how to take the heat out of the interior of guided missiles—how to handle the heat problem in space travel — how to transfer heat generated in your own TV set."

On the successful solution of heat transfer problems, LeBaron added, "rests many of the indispensable functions of our everyday life."

Escorting three small children around a zoo impresses you with how expert nature has been in devising varied forms of life and how she missed completely when she designed the human foot and leg muscles.

RECOVER BODY

CLEVELAND (AP)—Searchers yesterday recovered the body of a 17-year-old Cleveland youth who was drowned Sunday while attending a Catholic youth organization picnic at Wyoga Lake in Summit County. The victim was Eugene Yamamoto.

STILL RUNNING

AHOSKIE, N. C. (AP) — Three Currituck County prison inmates were unaccounted for after a baseball game between the camp teams of Hertford and Currituck counties.

The batter knocked a long, high fly. Three fielders ran—and kept running.

Man at Kenton Sentenced in Gambling Case

KENTON—Miles L. Anderson of Kenton was given a maximum sentence of 30 days and a fine of $500 Monday morning after switching his plea of "not guilty" to "guilty" to charges of renting a building for gambling purposes here.

Anderson was taken to the Toledo workhouse immediately after Common Pleas Judge Arthur D. Tudor imposed the sentence. He was the second of three persons, indicted by the Hardin County grand jury on gambling charges, to be given a maximum penalty.

Mrs. Lula Herge, 50, of Lakeview was convicted here last week of exhibiting gambling devices for gain and was given a maximum sentence of 90 days in the Toledo workhouse and a $500 fine. In addition, she will be required to post a $500 security bond for a one-year period following her release from the workhouse.

Indicted along with Anderson and Mrs. Herge was Philip Wisse, 62, who is in the San Antonio Hospital recovering from bullet wounds received in a gun battle with an unknown assailant on June 25 in an abandoned farmhouse about four miles south of here. Wisse, who is charged with exhibiting gambling devices for gain and carrying a concealed weapon, will be arraigned upon release from the hospital, county authorities said.

The trio was arrested when county law enforcement officers found evidence of gambling at the farmhouse following the shooting spree in which Wisse was wounded.

ONLY ONE ACCIDENT

One minor traffic accident involving less than $100 damage was reported today by Marion police. The state highway patrol and sheriff's deputies reported no accidents on county streets and highways during the last 24 hours.

BOY CRUSHED

Drink to your health!

with refreshing Borden's

Buttermilk

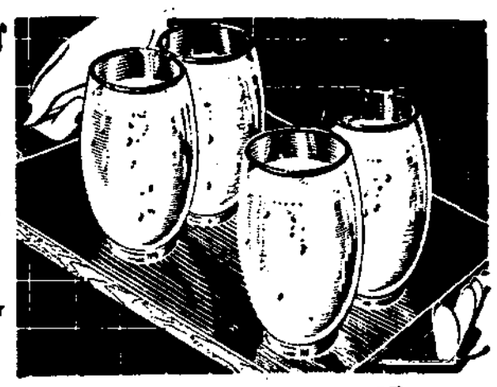
Old-fashioned Good Flavor!

National survey shows twice as many persons approved the flavor of Borden's Buttermilk as approved all other brands combined!

What this proves is that Buttermilk, to be enjoyable, must be exactly right—not "off" flavor in any way, and with just the right "feel". It also proves that just because you've tasted Buttermilk you don't like, doesn't mean that you won't like Borden's! Try it . . . you'll see what we mean!

For warm-weather health and pep!

LOW in the heat-producing calories you don't need . . . HIGH in the proteins, minerals and B-vitamins you do need! And Buttermilk helps promote easier digestion for many persons. Good—and good for you any time of year—and especially so in hot weather!



Have Borden's Buttermilk delivered regularly to your home . . . or ask for it at your favorite food market.

You Heat with Gas--

Now You Can Cool with Gas!

The Amazing New Servel Summertime GAS Air Conditioner

- Connects to your present heating pipes*
- Cools your entire house
- Operates on Gas, the ideal automatic fuel
- Costs surprisingly little

Don't Simmer This Summer. For real comfort, use Gas to cool your entire home this summer. For more information on this fabulous new product (without obligation, of course) send in the coupon now!

The Servel Summertime Gas Air Conditioner is not a window cooler or a night fan. It is a complete central cooling system that pours cool, dry, refreshing air into every room of your house. This single unit, operated by Gas, is installed alongside your present warm air furnace, and can, in most cases, be hooked up to present heating pipes.

Servel Summertime Gas Air Conditioning costs less than the many window coolers that would be needed to do so thorough a cooling job. It costs less to operate, too! Just as Natural Gas is the ideal fuel for heating — so is it ideal for cooling. Only Gas can cool your home so well for so little.

1954 'Hard-Sell' Year

Competition Is Sharper, Business Firms Discover

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) - Competition is sharpening up in the dog days. Business management is getting in some of its heaviest licks now, fighting for the most favorable position possible in the fall.

The year of the "hard sell" is bringing no-quarter battles within industries, and between industries. It's back of many of the mergers of the day. It leads to pleas to Congress for relief from some forms of competition, and to federal regulatory agencies for bans on "unfair" competition.

Capacity to produce more than the present market needs lights the fire under most of the competition for the consumer's dollar.

The auto, steel, oil, textile and television industries are examples.

BATTLES OVER competing ways of doing things are another phase. Examples are: The struggle of bottles, cans and cartons for food and beverage distribution; and the attempt of the railroads to compete with trucks by carrying truck-trailers piggy-back on flat cars.

To-the-death competition in the auto industry has led to three mergers among the smaller companies and to talk of still more combining to come. One aim was to strengthen the dealer set-ups of the merged companies, since dealer systems are the backbone of sales.

The dealers themselves have been in bitter competition. The cries over "bootlegging" of new cars at used car prices were carried all the way to the U. S. Department of Justice.

In the oil industry, competition has been somewhat tempered by the state regulation of output. But the small companies and the large ones without oil fields in other lands are protesting at the better competitive situation of the oil giants with foreign oil to import.

TARIFF BATTLES are heightened also, by growing competition in other industries. In the postwar years of the "easy sell" the tariff question was let lie. Now the demand for protection increases in proportion to the step-up in competition for the consumer's dollar.

Steel merger rumors also seem to stem back to the increasing competition in that industry. The bigger, diversified companies have the best competitive positon for sales and profits, now that the industry as a whole is operating at only about two-thirds of capacity.

Steel prices went up with the latest steel wage hike, but price concessions haven't stopped. Companies are absorbing freight costs here and there to meet competition from closer sources of supply.

And the fields in which one metal vies with another are seeing the effects of the battle for sales. Steel products in competition with aluminum haven't come along with the general steel price hike.

Aluminum executives, as they negotiate over wages with the union, are wondering how much of a wage boost can be passed along in higher prices without giving away markets to steel or copper.

In textiles competition between the various natural and man-made fibres is getting stiffer.

Television set makers are in a price-cutting battle. At the station level the fight is between the ultra high frequency and the very high frequency outlets.

It all makes the consumer look pretty well off.

Badges Were Real, 'No Smoking' Rule Violator Discovers

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—The bus sign said "No smoking." But Russell A. LaPlaca, 26, smoked.

When the man behind pointed to the sign, Russell replied, "Who says?"

The man was Police Inspector William G. Martin and he showed his badge.

"Anyone can have a tin badge," Russell said.

In back of Martin was Police Inspector J.C.R. McDonald, who also showed his badge. Then all three got off and went to Southern Station, where Russell posted $25 bail for smoking on a public conveyance and snuffed out his cigarette.

Crawford County Home Family Vacation To Be Backed by Show

GALION — Youngsters who live Tomorrow," the title and theme at the Crawford County Children's Home here, each year enjoy a camping trip during the latter part of the summer vacation period.

The big family at the Home, "Pop and Mom" Supt. and Mrs Martin Adams, that is, together with the home staff and some 60 children pack up tents, cooking equipment, swimming suits, pets and all of the accessories that go along on a camping trip. This has been planned by Supt. and Mrs Adams for several summers.

To Be at Camp Owens

Usually they camp out for two or three weeks. The camp site for several seasons has been Camp Avery Hand, Boy Scout camp, southeast of Mansfield. Due to a conflict in schedules, however, the camp is not available this year. Supt. Adams shopped around and finally located Camp Owens, south of Marion. The camp has been obtained for one week.

Expenses will be a little more than in other years and funds are needed for this purpose. But this problem has been solved. Next Thursday night a show will be given at the Bucyrus High School auditorium. James Scheiber of Crestline, who operates Scheiber's Dancing Studios at Crestline and Mansfield, is directing the production, "Stars of Tomorrow," entirely for the benefit of the recreational program of the children's home. Funds will be used for the camping trip and other recreational activities at the Home. The cast of 180 dancers in the show are pupils of Scheiber, and 34 are from the children's home.

For the last two years, Scheiber has donated his time to teach the children at the home to do tap, ballet and interpretative dancing. The lessons have revealed that many of the youngsters have a talent for this art.

The annual camping trip is a part of the year-around program of character building activities for boys and girls at the Home, under the direction of Supt and Mrs. Adams.

42 Acts in Show

Scheiber said today that there are 42 acts in the show he will give at Bucyrus next Thursday night. Pupils are from his Crestline and Mansfield studios, besides the 34 from the children's home. They range from four years to 16 years of age.

Original dance numbers by Scheiber, as well as the costumes which he also designed, are to be seen in the production, "Stars of Tomorrow," the title and theme of the show. He is being assisted by his studio staff which is comprised of Mr. and Mrs. William Scheiber, his parents, and the instructors, Diane Funston, Rochelle Martin and Harlean Cole. The pianist is Miss Addie Blocker.

"A large portion of the two military dances in which all girls from the children's home will be featured will be in black lighting," Scheiber explained.

He said that the show will be one of variations, with eccentric dancing, comedy numbers, toe and acrobatic, in addition to tap and ballet dancing. Costumes are colorful and unique, he added.

The Russian number depicts typical Russian dances and is especially difficult, but the youngsters are responding like troupers," Scheiber concluded.

Formula for Longevity

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Piute Indian, Mrs. Tatcumbie DuPee, offered this philosophy yesterday on her 105th birthday:

"I have lived each day for itself. I think right; I try to do right; I don't worry. And I eat fresh food. That is my medicine."

EMPLOYES TO BE HONORED

Two Marion employes of the City Loan and Savings Co. will be presented service pins at the annual service award dinner at the firm's home office in Lima tonight James B. Wiseman will be presented a five-year pin, while Bryan B Stalter will receive a pin honoring him for 25 years of service. Ted Ochs, manager of the Marion office announced today.

Around Council's Table

Marion City Council adopted 14 pieces of legislation, turned down none, heard some complaints and considered other routine business at its meeting last night at city hall.

Sewer Complaint

One of the complaints was voiced by some 10 persons who presented a petition signed by about 100 persons living in the city's southwest section asking that the city take corrective measures concerning odors rising from the Columbia St. open ditch.

R. P. Burris of 311 Nye St. served as spokesman for the group. He said the signers of the petition felt something should be done to cover the sewer because it is "an eyesore and a safety and health hazard" to children in the area.

Safety-Service Director Ralph E. Forrest said that steps were being taken to correct the situation. He said that city crews have been busy repairing an interceptor-type catchbasin at the sewer outlet into the open ditch. He is also negotiating with the Erie Railroad to get an easement so that a power shovel may be taken into the ditch to clean it out and grade it. This will eliminate stagnant pools in the ditch, he said.

Mayor Robinson said he has checked on the condition. He said that repairs are being made to the interceptor. This will prevent the discharge from the sewer from entering the open ditch except after a hard storm when rainwater run-off is heavy, he said.

At other times when there is a normal flow through the sewer, the sewage will be bypassed into a sanitary sewer line for treatment at the sewage treatment plant, he said. This means that during dry weather there will be no discharge into the open ditch at all, he said.

Third Ward Councilman Herman Rinehart noted that the petition called for closing in the ditch and asked that an estimate of the cost of such a project be prepared by the city engineer's office.

Mayor Robinson also said he would have a report for the next Council meeting concerning progress of the present project.

Firemen Ask Raise

A letter asking for a pay raise for city firemen was submitted to Council by John L. Chaney, president; James W. Bowers, vice president; and James W. Bradshaw, secretary-treasurer of Local 379, International Association of Fire Fighters.

The letter said that the organization conducted a research in 13 other Ohio cities and found that the average annual wages for firemen in those cities is $4,044 compared with the Marion salary of $3,600.

Only two of those cities paid the same as Marion and only one paid less than Marion, the letter said. Council unanimously adopted a motion to receive the letter and place it on file.

Hospital Legislation

Three pieces of legislation, all adopted unanimously, concerned the Marion General Hospital.

One of these authorized the transfer of funds remaining in the hospital trust fund to the board of trustees. The trust fund began on Jan. 1, 1947 for the benefit and use of the City Hospital. The ordinance called for transfer of $1,084 still remaining in that account to the trustees for the benefit and use of the new hospital.

Another ordinance amended a section of a previously passed ordinance concerning street lighting of the access road to the new hospital.

The amendment was to delete a reference to the maximum cost of the lighting, estimated to be $1,087 a year. The fixtures are to be installed in accordance with a 1947 contract with the Ohio Edison Co.

The third ordinance concerning the hospital authorized the board of governors to advertise for bids and sign a contract for furnishing oxygen and oxygen facilities in the hospital for two years.

Appropriations Made

An ordinance making additional appropriations from the general, garbage and gasoline tax funds was unanimously adopted. It calls for appropriating $10,600 from the general fund for the following uses: jury and witness fees, $200; traffic bureau supplies, $200; stationary and printing, $300; automobile maintenance, $1,500; prisoner subsistence, $6,000; furniture and fixtures, $300; special incidentals, $500; sewer materials, $1,000; and light and fuel, $600.

Amount from the garbage fund was $3,000 for purchase of a power shovel which the city has been leasing for use at the city dump.

Appropriation from the gasoline tax fund was for $1,500 for a traffic light outlay fund

Plat Presented

Plat for a new home building project on Franconia and Madison Aves. was presented to Council by Denis L. Trachsel. He said he is ready to build 11 houses on the two streets within the next six weeks. He plans to pave the streets 16 feet wide and put in storm and sanitary sewers, he said. The plat he presented was too big to be recorded, he said. It was presented to Council merely to familiarize members with the proposal until a correct size plat could be prepared and presented later.

Note Issue Approved

An ordinance authorizing the issuance of $21,000 in city notes for improvement of Seffner Ave. from Indiana to Mt. Vernon Ave. by construction of storm and sanitary sewers was adopted unanimously. The notes are to be issued in anticipation of the levy of special assessments for the improvement project.

Cathers Commended

A resolution commending former city Engineer Thomas S. Cathers for faithful and meritorius service to the city for 36 years was unanimously adopted.

The resolution noted that Cathers has tendered his resignation by reason of reaching the age of retirement. Cathers submitted his resignation last week to become effective on Aug. 1. Mayor Robinson said he would continue in the city employ to work in the city engineer's office. Assistant City Engineer John V. Ruth was appointed to the post vacated by Cathers.

Street Improvements

Three of the remaining pieces of legislation adopted unanimously concerned street or alley improvements.

One was to authorize the city engineer to prepare plans and profiles for construction of storm and sanitary sewers on Brentwood and Glenwood Drives.

Another was for improvement of Uhler Ave. south of Indiana to Mt. Vernon Aves. with construction of storm and sanitary sewers, macadam pavement, concrete curbs and gutters and sidewalks.

A third resolution declared it a necessity to improve or construct concrete curbs and gutters on both sides of Sharp St. from Bennett to Hayes St.

Still another authorized the Ohio Edison Co. to install a street light on Grove St. midway between Uhler Ave. and Seffner Ave.

In other action on streets and alleys a letter was received from Fred K. Berry and William R. Patterson, owners of B and P Builders, requesting vacation of an alley cutting through property owned by them at Madison, Wilson and Ackerman Aves. All their lots—which face on Madison Ave.—have an alley at the rear and the alley they wish vacated would be of little use or need, they claimed. The letter was referred to the streets and alleys committee.

A complaint was received from Mrs. C. M. Long of 277 Jefferson St. concerning dust rising from an alley at the rear of her residence. Safety-Service Director Ralph Forrest said the alley would be oiled by Wednesday.

Claims Approved

A claim of Henrietta Wallace, a former city hospital employ, for vacation pay of $82 was unanimously approved. She had worked at the hospital for seven years less one day when she became ill and was dischared from her position. Council said since she lacked only one day to being entitled to a vacation for the seventh year she was entitled to the pay in lieu of a vacation.

A damage claim of William Gannon of 454 Grant St for $114.55 repairs to his car was unanimously approved. Gannon claimed that his car was damaged when it struck some tree branches extending from a city truck driven by Ralph Graff on June 16.

Other Action

In other action, Council:

Received a report from Richard Lister, councilman-at-large, on the visit of Marion, Ind. officials to Marion Municipal Airport recently to look over local airport facilities. Lister said the Indiana group was pleased with cooperation of local officials in providing them with information for setting up and operating a municipal airport.

Received a letter and news release sent to Mayor Robinson by Lake Central Airlines requesting support of a bill now in the U.S. Senate which would give Lake Central Airlines and other such local service carriers permanent, rather than temporary certification to serve Marion and other ports on company lines. A permanent certificate would allow the company to plan for the future and effect greater efficiency in its operations the letter said

The invocation was given by the Rev. L. H. Ludwig, pastor of Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Two councilmen were absent. They were Robert G. Haldeman, councilman-at-large and Sixth Ward Councilman Harold Fralich. A motion to excuse Haldeman was adopted. No action concerning Fralich's absence was taken.

Woman Facing Prison Ordered To Wean Baby

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — A young mother has been ordered by a judge to wean her baby.

Mrs. John C. Honeycutt and her husband pleaded guilty last month to forging 30 checks totaling $700. They claimed they used the money to buy food and medicine for their daughter Debra, 5 months old.

When Mrs. Honeycutt told the court yesterday she was breast-feeding her baby, Superior Judge Joe Raycraft ordered her to put the child on a bottle and return Aug. 9 for sentence.

IKE LOSES SOME STRAW

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower lost some straw yesterday. A wagonload of it, being transported from his farm near here to a neighboring farm caught fire. Several bales were destroyed before firemen put out the blaze.

You Don't Have To Raise Your Voice To Get Service Here

One thing we can promise you. If you are not perfectly happy with the order when served you don't have to growl or raise your voice to instantly gain the attention of your waiter. We try our best to get your order exactly as you give it, but if by accident something is not to your liking, just tell the waiter. He will make things right; in a matter of minutes. We are mighty proud of our waiters.

Alabama Trial Of Ex-Banker Set To Begin

CLAYTON, Ala. (AP) — Ex-banker Royall Reynolds, whose disappearance last March brought sleepy Clio, Ala., awake with a start, goes on trial today on embezzlement charges.

Reynolds' disappearance tied up funds in the now-defunct unchartered Merchant's Money Exchange at the critical spring planting period. He returned two weeks later. An audit showed a $75,000 deficit in the bank's funds.

A citizens' committee agreed to accept a settlement under which depositors would get back all except about 10 or 15 per cent of their money. Reynolds liquidated all his personal holdings and his relatives chipped in to make up all except about $9,000 of the deficit.

Seizure of Press Defended by Peron

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—President Juan Peron says his aim is to place all newspaper enterprises exclusively in the hands of a single organization of newspapermen pledged to the service of the Argentine people.

His views were expressed at a luncheon when he spoke to newsmen who cover Government House.

"It has been said we seek a monopoly over newspapers," the President said. "I would like a monopoly over newspapers in order to place it in the service of the country."

Blind Man Loses His Interest in Motorcycle

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —Ronald Carlos Taylor, 25, always wanted a motorcycle.

He had an opportunity to buy one from a friend last week, one that could do 100 miles an hour. The fact he has been drawing the full state pension for the blind eight years didn't deter him. He bought it.

He rode several interesting blocks before he made a left turn and ran into Miss Barbara Murphy, 25-year-old pedestrian.

Yesterday, Municipal Judge Charles Peery gave Talyor a 30-day suspended sentence for driving without a license, 30 days suspended for violating a pedestrian's right of way, and six months on probation.

Taylor sold the motorcycle.

Police Chief Issues Grim Reminder to Speeders

MISSOURI VALLEY, Iowa (AP)—Police Chief Everett Gochenour hands both a ticket and a card to every speeder or reckless driver he arrests. The card says:

"To whom this may concern:

"In case of death or personal injury by speeding or reckless driving, please call the ..... funeral home at ....."

Gochenour asks the violator to fill in the blanks and carry the card in his billfold.

TAG FEES DISTRIBUTED

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Townships in Ohio received their first distribution yesterday of 5 per cent of motor vehicle license tag fees. Highway safety Director U. C. Felty said $1,849,815 was distributed under provisions of the Wheeler Act of the last Legislature. The 5 per cent is divided on a mileage basis.

$100,000 Received

Business, Industry Fund Aiding Colleges in Area

Two Marion area universities, Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio Northern, have received more than $100,000 from leading Ohio business and industrial firms, the Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges reported today.

Foundation chairman Harold L. Yochum, president of Capital University, reported Ohio Wesleyan has received $77,973.90 and Ohio Northern has received $36,131.40 since 1951. Started in 1951, the program is aimed at strengthening member schools of the foundation.

Nearly a million dollars has been contributed to the 22 member schools since the program started. Gifts are shared on a basis of 60 per cent divided equally and 40 per cent divided according to full-time resident enrollment.

Ohio Northern president F. Bringle McIntosh said OFIC support has been a "life saver" for the school. He said:

"At a time when major necessary improvements have been made in every department of the University life, including faculty, it has been difficult to pay salaries comparable to those of like institutions. OFIC support has made it possible to keep salary scale within reasonable range of sister colleges in Ohio."

Herman Shipps, vice president of Ohio Wesleyan, said OFIC aid directly affects better education for today's youth.

"Funds from the foundation enable us to be more generous in salaries and to bring them nearer to the level paid in state schools and in business for comparable service.

Because quality of education must depend upon teaching, which, in turn, may be determined by faculty salaries, a direct line thus can be established between OFIC gifts and better college education for Ohio youth."

Boy, 9, Bests Bear In Zoo Encounter

CHICAGO (AP) — Nine-year-old Leonard Radermacher has a scratched hand to prove to his playmates that he took on a grizzly bear yesterday and won.

He crawled under a guard rail at Indian Boundary Park Zoo and handed the 400-pound bear a peanut through he bars of his cage. The bear clamped his teeth on the boy's hand.

Leonard describes how he got away:

"So I poked the bear on the nose with my other hand and he let go."

SOCIAL WORKER BEATEN

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police were searching today for the assailant of a 45-year-old social worker, who was beaten in her office with a paving brick inside a paper bag. Miss Eleanor Bonham, director of the University Settlement, told police the man had visited her previously requesting that his 6-year-old daughter be sent to a summer camp. He returned yesterday, while Miss Bonham was alone in the office, and inflicted deep gashes in her head.

An Absence of Shooting

The young seem to be more impressed than the old with the claim that the world is at peace because of the war in Indochina has been halted. The young are more likely than the old to believe that peace is the absence of shooting.

In 1931, an absence of shooting was converted into an existence of shooting when the Japanese began to shoot their way into Manchuria. The success of their aggression inspired Mussolini to give the order for Italy to shoot its way into Ethiopia in 1934.

When the League of Nations had demonstrated to the satisfaction of all would-be aggressors everywhere that it could do nothing about aggression, Hitler was free to shoot his way into all the territories he coveted. Until 1939, there was no peace, although at times there was no immediate need for shooting.

In 1939, World War II began, although shooting did not begin in earnest until 1940. After the Japanese attack on the United States on Dec. 7, 1941, the shooting became worldwide. It is interesting to note, apropos of peace in Indochina in 1954, that Japan first invaded it on Sept. 22, 1940, and since then there has been continuous shooting. Perhaps for the Indochinese, an absence of shooting will seem like peace.

But there is no peace. There can be none without good will. The end of worldwide shooting in 1945 proved to be the signal for the release of more rance and mischief than ever were loosed against mankind before.

Simultaneously, mankind had learned about an explosion that could be produced by atom-splitting, a vast new dimension of violence, that was to become even vaster with development of explosions that dwarfed the original cataclysms at Hiroshima and Nagasaki. During the intervals when no one was being blown to bits after 1945, there were no illusions about peace; there wasn't any.

There is no peace now. There is only another tenuous truce that can be broken whenever further aggression seems feasible to an aggressor. Perhaps this is all there ever was. Perhaps there can be no peace, only an occasional absence of shooting.

No More Creeping Socialism

The first rule of survival for bureaucracy is to keep growing. That is the way little bureaus become big bureaus and little bureaucrats become big bureaucrats.

There is nothing unnatural about it. The tendency to keep growing in government is as natural as the tendency to keep growing in business.

This is the underlying issue in the Eisenhower administration's policy on Tennessee Valley Authority, the super-agency built by the original New Dealers to introduce socialism into the United States in the grand manner.

The Eisenhower administration is against creeping socialism. It is in favor of creeping capitalism, instead. It believes government should encourage private enterprise in every way possible and stay out of competition with its own taxpayers.

This infuriates the backers of creeping socialism. It was intended to do just that. It was intended to give Americans who like the private enterprise system a voice in the two-party system. It was intended to correct the historic mistake of "me-tooism" which kept anti-New Dealers from voting against creeping socialism.

President Eisenhower has put the lid on TVA. He does not want it to expand. He has put the lid on the Atomic Energy Commission, too. He does not want it to get the idea it is going to be the means of putting the federal government into the power business, either.

This is the so-called "power fight" in Congress. The Eisenhower administration is having a showdown with the New Dealers on creeping socialism. So far it is winning. On the latest New Deal proposal — a ban on a new private power plant in TVA's area, thereby giving TVA a chance to expand — the Senate upheld the Eisenhower administration 55 to 36. The private plant will be built, not another public plant.

Who Has 87 Billion Dollars?

It now turns out that the 50-billion-dollar highway improvement program that has been mentioned by President Eisenhower as a necessity during the next 10 years would consist of federal grants and matching money provided by the states — 25 billion apiece.

This would be in addition to 37 billion dollars that will be spent over the next 10 years by states, counties and cities on highway construction in the ordinary course of events. Thus, a total of 87 billion dollars for new construction by 1965 is being talked about.

Since the President's 50-billion-dollar proposal raised the question of where that much money would come from and 87 billion dollars makes the question even more pointed, the answer should be given without hesitation.

It would come out of the productive efforts of the American people. That is where all wealth spent on public improvements comes from, contrary to a foolish misconception that it is bestowed on the people by Washington or the treasuries of the 48 states.

Phony Liberalism

By David Lawrence

Filibuster Obstructs Constitutional Processes

Conduct "unbecoming a United States senator" and which "brings the United States Senate itself into disrepute" has just been witnessed by the American people as they have watched a group of senators in the minority striving to impose their will on a frustrated majority.

Where is the resolution of "censure" for the senators who use "methods" that override constitutional ethics and the rules of fair play and seek to prevent the passage of laws through a contest in physical endurance, with all-night sessions, prearranged relays of speakers and unlimited debate in what is known as a "filibuster"?

For several days now the Congress of the United States has been unable to function on a legislative program involving billions of dollars of appropriations and on measures of far-reaching consequence of the welfare of the people.

The accumulated damage allegedly done by Sen. McCarthy, in his brusque handling of persons accused of having Communist connections, is infinitesimal compared with the damage done by the "filibuster" of the last several days not only to the public business but "to the prestige of the Senate itself, both here and abroad."

THE "FILIBUSTER" is just a palpably dishonest device whereby a roll call vote, desired by the majority, is prevented through the incessant speechmaking of the minority, who hope by these tactics to force the majority to yield lest other bills — also sought by the majority — be sidetracked or lost if they do not come to a vote before the end of the session.

No piece of legislation was ever so bad that it couldn't, if passed, be promptly repealed or amended when subsequent experience shows its errors. Hence no "filibuster" is ever justified in a constitutional democracy.

Who were the senators conducting the latest "filibuster"? Did they come from the ranks of the "wicked reactionaries"? On the contrary, the group which has been engaged in the longest "filibuster" in the history of the Senate is composed primarily of so-called "liberals" — the men who usually prate about constitutionalism and the "rights of the people" and about the "methods" of those who, they claim, are transgressing constitutional rights and trying to bring about "thought control" and "conformity of thought."

"Filibustering" itself, of course, is not unconstitutional any more han is browbeating of witnesses before congressional committees or using the floor of Congress to call citizens "liars" and other epithets under cover of congressional immunity.

WHEN THE SO-CALLED "liberals" use disgraceful "methods" and get big headlines and their pictures in the newspapers as participants in a "talkathon," there are, strangely enough, no resolutions of "censure" introduced nor any telegrams gathered by public-relations firms from lists of prominent people to clamor for the punishment of these obstructionists.

There is always a plausible excuse given by the "filibusterers." This time it is that they wish to prevent what they call a "give-away" of certain atomic energy developments by the government to private industry, though government-owned channels in radio and television have long been awarded to private companies which make profits thereon.

It's an age-old controversy between government ownership and private ownership, between state socialism or communist socialism and private enterprise.

The steady pressure for an all-powerful state, in which a political bureaucracy shall dispense favors to its political henchmen, has never let up since the New Dealers and Fair Dealers began to apply the scheme in various pieces of legislation.

The American people are really behind President Eisenhower in his drive to get the government out of business and to give the people the opportunity to earn their own living and to conserve their savings and invest them in business enterprises, but the minority of the Senate uses the specious argument that the issue isn't "fully understood"—as if the voluminous record of millions of words spoken in several days of continuous debate will ever be read by anybody except the official stenographers.

THE ISSUE is well understood already. It is the difference between freedom of initiative and the stifling of initiative, between private enterprise and government ownership or control of every business, every retail store and every doctor's office, with no incentive to service and no competition to insure the quality of the product at the lowest price.

Irrespective of the merits of this question, if the majority is ready to vote, why should coercive tactics of a group of senators with strong lungs defeat another group which apparently must appease them or else allow a whole legislative program to be wrecked?

Is there anything which is more deserving of the "censure" of the people than unfair methods used in blocking legislation needed to promote the welfare of tens of millions of persons — their tax benefits and their social - security gains and their measures of national defense, all of which have been delayed by a phony "liberalism" and an unconscionable abuse of senatorial privileges?

Will there be any resolutions of "censure" introduced now? Of course not — for these evidently are reserved only for one senator who, sometimes with a bit of excessive zeal, fights the communistic influences in our government and our institutions which, if successful in their penetration, can make a shambles of individual freedom and democracy itself.

Cotton Corners

By TRUMAN TWILL

Dear Nephew: While I cannot say that events in the Asiatic Rice Bowl have shaken civilization here at the Corners, we have a normal interest in what is going on in remote parts of the world.

Indochina is, after all, as close to us as Korea—and Korea was pretty close to everybody before the casualty lists finally stopped. Incidentally, why was it all right for us to call off a war we didn't want to fight in Korea and all wrong for the French to call off a war that didn't want to fight in Indochina? Our big bazoos are blowing their tops loose about those awful Frenchmen, but when it was our turn to be practical the same bazoos were blowing in our praise.

I suppose that is why it's hard for us here at the Corners to shudder in our beds at the sound of big bazoos. We have heard them before. The tunes they play have different names but the tune is always the same.

I found i t easier to get excited about Asia when gun-bearing Chinese who wore regular uniforms were called "crack troops" and the ones who couldn't afford uniforms were called "bandits." It has been years since I have seen any Chinese soldiers referred to as "crack troops."

The new name for them is Communists. Even in Indochina, they didn't call the soldiers who were fighting the government "bandits" —not even "rebels." They called them the Vietminh, which I have trouble spelling and I have no idea what it means.

So, as I said, civilization here at the Corners is blumbling along on an even keel. The wheat crop was good and oats will be medium to good. There is nothing wrong with the corn and the second-crop hay that a rain wouldn't fix. Potatoes are fair to middling, but dairy farmers are going into supplemental feeding because the pastures have burned up. Some are feeding green alfalfa. Being the proprietor of a filling station and general store can be pretty wearing sometimes, but it's a snap compared with farming. As your aunt points out whenever the subject is brought up, she isn't expected to put in a 10-hour day at our present racket, the way she used to do when we were green-thumbing our way into an early grave.

Have you read the new Overstreet book yet—the one called "The Mind Alive"? I am having a circus fitting people I know to the different kinds of off - balance mentalities described. Imagine my embarrassment last night when I ran across the description of my own personal trouble. Like Whistler's mother when she baked a cake, I am off my rocker.

Apparently the only perfectly balanced person I know is your kindly befuddled old aunt, who must be a perfect example of what everbody should strive to be. She has infinite patience, bounce, adaptability, normalcy and vigor. She knows how to put everybody at ease. She holds no grudges, has no pet animosities, never thinks she needs to make a muscle at anybody and is perfectly content with what she has. I must remember to buy her a new broom for her next birthday.

If you don't want to buy the Overstreet book, we'll lend you our copy as soon as both of us have read it. That would be in about one more week. Your aunt will wade through it in two days because she won't waste nearly as much time chuckling about her off-balance friends as I'm wasting. That is because her mind is better balanced than mine is.

How are you doing with picnics this summer: You never complain any more. Be sure to pass around our regards.

Democrats Running Short of Issues

By Jay G. Hayden

The Senate filibuster against President Eisenhower's atomic energy bill is due mainly to a desperate need of the Democrats for new issues upon which to contest the November congressional elections.

The trouble is that the planks upon which the Democrats' high command confidently expected to reclaim both houses of Congress have been fading, one after the other.

The latest in that line is the removal of what the minority leaders had counted as a made-to-order foreign-policy issue by the accomplishment of an Indochinese truce with the U.S. refusing to sign.

Ever since the fall of Dien Bien Phu, Democrats in Congress have been charging the Eisenhower administration with responsibility for this defeat, although with a notable conflict of justifications for this contention. Some of the complainants have asserted that Secretary Dulles tried his best to put the U.S. into a shooting war and was prevented from doing so only by French distaste for such intervention and complete refusal of the British to go along.

OTHERS HAVE SAID that Secretary Dulles first tried to scare the Communists with a bluff and then ran out on the French in their moment of extremity.

Whatever the reception of these arguments by the American voting public in April, it is now conceded by all hands that ending of the Indochinese war has made them not worth a hoot as campaign fodder in November.

By next fall, rather, the arrival of peace all around the world through the successive cease-fires in Korea and Indochina may loom as the best of all talking points for Republican candidates.

Long before the Indochinese peace another prime Democratic hope had turned sour due to the failure of a prophesied economic depression to eventuate. Led by Sen. Douglas, the ex-economist professor from Illinois, Democrat spokesmen until recently seized every opportunity to proclaim that the country was going to the dogs and that Republican cutting off of government buying and doles was to blame.

That line of argument turned into a boomerang for the simple reason that the American people refused to board the toboggan set for them.

Despite a reduction of 7.5 billion dollars in government purchase of war goods, employment in June totaled 62,098,000 as compared with the all-time peak of 63,408,000 registered in August, 1953. Up to July 1 this year gross national production was exactly level with the 1953 annual rate of 265 billion dollars.

THERE ARE SOME weak spots, chiefly the centers of largest military production, where unemployment may cost the Republicans votes, but remarkable over - all prosperity and stability prevails. Instead of losing votes on economic grounds, such things as tax reduction, now certain to exceed 27 billion dollars on returns for this year and removal of all price and wage controls have made this one of the very best subjects for Republican appeal to the electorate.

Almost as discouraging to the Democrats as the general economic improvement is a confusion of farm sentiments indicative that winter-book hopes of a duplication of President Truman's spectacular 1948 gain among the agriculturalists are not going to be realized.

The reason the atomic - energy bill has been picked on is that the Democrats see it as a means of dramatizing the issue of public vs. private electric - power develop- Montana and California in the far west and in Kentucky and Tennessee on the southern border, all with senatorial seats at stake this year, electric power may be a crucial issue.

THUS THE KINGPIN filibusterers are Sen. Morse, the renegade Republican from Oregon, Senators Jackson and Magnuson, Democrats from the neighboring state of Washington, and the group from the Tennessee River valley states, Kefauver and Gore of Tennessee and Hill and Sparkman of Alabama.

Of only two Republicans who voted to bar government buying of private power to offset diversion of the Tennesse Valley Authority's output to atomic use, one was Cooper of Kentucky, whose senatorial fight for re-election against former Vice President Barkley very well may turn on this question.

All things considered, the filibuster may cut both ways. The real heart of the atomic energy bill is its provision for opening the atomic - development field to private companies. It is significant, for example, that two Democratic senators up for re - election who have stood four square for the Eisenhower position are Frear of Delaware, home of the great Du Pont Co., and Burke of Ohio, another state with large industrial possibilities hinging on less hampered peaceful use of the atom.

New Note in Classifying

By MARK DANA

Representative J. Arthur Younger of California comes from a citified district, and believes federal government agencies are lop-sided in their solicitude for rural areas.

He considers the multi-faceted Department of Agriculture, for instance, as concerned solely for rural dwellers. Why not a government department of Urbiculture, he queries, and so he introduces in Congress a bill to set up such a department. He coined the name himself.

Maybe some intense rivalry between one Cabinet department laboring for country folks and another affectionately solicitous for city residents could add liveliness to a governmental system sometimes dull if already complicated by alphabetical branches.

Presumably the Agriculturists would turn over to the Urbiculturists a large block of their concerns with canning raspberries, growing tulips, dressmaking, feeding babies and executing cockroaches. The Urbiculture crowd also might horn in on housing, defense, industrial and other socio-economic problems peculiar to big communities, and presently when some politician trics to speak authoritatively about "the farm vote," an opponent will attempt to voice the sentiments of "the city vote" and later there can be special pleaders for the big city vote, small city vote, small town vote, until just about everybody has a stumping champion.

The man who lives in a city but owns a farm out on Route 16 thus will have all his interests cared for at cabinet level, and all people will be separated into urban goats and rural sheep, either one or the other and ne'er the twain shall meet. Something like that.

As this is an era of labels however recklessly applied, maybe some people who once lived on a farm would be glad to have all their present predicaments handled just as thoroughly as the USDA solves all birth-to-death puzzles among the landed gentry.

From Our Readers

To The Star:

What kind of morals do girls, teenagers and young women in our present day of living have, anyway? Do they think it looks cute to go parading uptown in something they refer to as "shorts" but which looks more like a bathing suit?

I have nothing against "shorts" or "bathing suits" if kept in their place, and their proper place is on the beach, at a picnic grounds, at any sports activity, or in the privacy of your home or back yard.

So, in fairness to all men and women of all ages, let's keep our morals on a high level — so how about it — let's keep the "shorts" off the downtown streets.

If you feel you must wear pants downtown, there are the more modest knee-length variety, commonly known as "pedal-pushers."

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Mother Knows Best

With Victor Borge, a piano player, passing the $500,000 mark for a one-man performance and with Liberace, another pianist, getting more gold than Fort Knox as one of the entertainment world sensations of all time, it seems to us that at last a signal victory has been won by Mothers-Who - Forced-Kids-To-Take-Piano-Lessons. A lot of hard feeling and even bitterness has had to be borne by these mothers through the years.

There has been deep criticism of them for making Junior stay in and take his lesson from Prof. Speegledorfer when from outside came the cries of "Hey, it's my turn at bat," "Put it here, Red!" and "Shuddup, I can run you out by a mile." But mommer has been vindicated as seldom before by the Victor Borge-Liberace triumphs of the piano over the Ringling Brothers Circus and "Oklahoma."

We also see a victory over the jukebox, the phonograph and all forms of canned music. The piano may even be coming back, a fact which frightens all kids up to the point where you point to Liberace and Borge, their income tax and their take-home pay after everybody has had a cut.

Mom tried to get us to take piano lessons as a kid, but we fought the issue to a finish, even hiding in the woods for a week or so. We have since wondered why we were so foolishly obdurate. But now it is all clear — we grew up in the BLB Era (Before Liberace and Borge). The best a piano player could do then, it struck us, was to make the Poli vaudeville orchestra, play at the Music Hall dance or get invited to parties only because there were no other piano players in the neighborhood.

We belonged to the great small fry fraternity of kids opposed to piano lessons, and now we know the reason. Mother never knew the importance of a wisecrack and a comedy routine, and there wasn't a piano teacher anywhere who could halt the lessons now and then for some ad libbing and general development of the vaudeville routine.

Prof. Speegledorfer was a dour man who didn't have a gag in his system. He just wouldn't stand on his head or take a pratfall for a laugh and would have blown his stack at any piano playing profession if you could work the suggestion. There was a great future in the old masters into a sure-fire comedy routine, fall off the piano stool now and then and perhaps appear in a lily-white suit.

Today, there can be no doubt that fame and riches are yours if you can build piano playing into an act which has all the amusement-world appeal of a water carnival, a revival of vaudeville, and farewell tour by Jimmy Durante.

We see the possibilities of a situation where Little Willie will come running to mother imploring, "Mumsie, can't I PLEASE have my piano lessons five days a week instead of one"

Mike Todd, one of our favorite show people, is in the big dough again with Todd-AO, a new big-screen movie system which is doing the Hollywood version of "Oklahoma." The Surrey With the Todd On Top, as it were, "Oklahoma," by the way, is being shot in Arizona!!! This can mean war, men.

James Cochrane, said to be the oldest saloonist in America, has sold his Milwaukee place after 72 years in the business and he takes us away back with his nostalgic statement, "There was a time when beer was a nickel and you put the bottle on the bar for the customer to help himself to whisky at a dime a glass."

Yes, and there was Adam Ziegler's place in Crown Street back home where a hot lunch was served every noon FOR FREE with any nickel drink.

We didn't realize that Irving Berlin's "God Bless America" was written in 1917 for "Yip Yip Yaphank," thrown out by him as too serious and not published until 1938! Every cent in royalties from it has gone to the Boy and Girl Scouts of America

Radio and Television

The Networks Should Take Over

Recently the New York Herald Tribune's lead editorial expressed horrified bewilderment at the wanton and apparently completely motiveless slaying of a man in Brooklyn.

J. CROSBY

The slaying, the editorial pointed out, was symptomatic of the increasing and appalling brutality of American youth.

This year approximately 1,000,000 American young people, most of them between the ages of 12 and 17, will be arrested for delinquent or downright criminal acts, a thoroughly alarming figure.

The incidence of violence in the crime statistics — the beatings, rapings, knifings, shootings—compounds the alarm. In my youth, a boy was considered properly daring if he hooked a couple of marbles from the dime store when no one was looking. Today, it is the fashion to hold the joint up, slug the old lady in charge and make off with the cash receipts.

THE FACT IS THAT our children are being treated to a sickening amount of violence in the comic books and on television and it is no wonder that they go out and emulate what they see on their TV screens and in the comic books.

In its fourth annual report on children's programming, the National Association for Better Radio and Television, a hard-working and enterprising outfit, declared that it "is dismayed over the volume of crime and the degree of violence which dominate TV programs for children."

The committee concluded that "crime is king on TV for children and the crown is being welded more firmly into place with each passing month."

That phrase "degree of violern

That phrase "degree of violence" is interesting. If every parent would take the trouble — and believe me, it's trouble — to watch the degree of violence to which his children are subjected, he would be appalled. Violence is no stranger to children's fiction or to children's movies but this kind of violence, this utter brutality, is comparatively new and it's getting worse.

HOUR AFTER HOUR of this sort of thing can have no other effect but than to brutalize a child, to dull his sensibilities, to accept violence as a fact of life, and, eventually — as in the case of two young hoods kicking a total stranger to death — to emulate.

Television, of course, is not wholly to blame but, if it contributes in any way to the juvenile violence on the streets — and I'm convinced that it does — then drastic measures should be taken now. This is a very serious situation.

Years ago, NBC and CBS took over control of their news shows under the very proper argument that news was too important to be handled by outside agencies. Now I think it's far more important that the networks take over sole control of all their children's shows.

I don't mean just set up some degree of supervision because that hasn't worked but to set up children's program departments and create and run all programs aimed at children.

Most of the programs created by the networks — like CBS' "Big Top" and ABC's "Super Circus" and NBC's "Ding Dong School"—have been very good shows indeed. The horrible examples are the creations of package outfits, most of them on the West Coast.

Concerted action by the networks could easily get rid of the bad ones overnight and the cereal and chewing gum companies would simply have to settle for the good ones because there wouldn't be anything else. And so would the children.

"MORE MONEY," NAFBRAT pointed out, "is spent for the production of a single half-hour crime western than for the production of the entire 21 programs classified as excellent by the committee. This fantastic 20-to-1 production cost ratio is no doubt the prime cause ofthe generally lower audience ratings of the better programs."

And the situation is rapidly getting much worse. There are four times as many crime programs for children, NAFBRAT says, in 1954 than there were three years ago.

The only solution as I see it is for the networks to produce their own kids shows and allow no others on their networks. Codes are useless. You get some such ruling that one knifing is all right but two are all wrong. The networks simply have to assume full responsibility for what is becoming an increasingly grave civic problem.

PURCHASE AUDIOMETER

MOUNT GILEAD—The Morrow County Board of Health has purchased a portable audiometer for use in testing hearing in the schools of Morrow County. Approximately two-thirds of the purchase price was made available by Miss Mae Tisdale, former county health nurse, now retired and living in Findlay. Miss Tisdale saw the need for the device and began saving sales tax receipts for the purchase of the machine. Dr. Stanley Brody of Cardington was named to the board to take the place of Dr. Lowell Murphy of Cardington.

News of the District

Galion

Announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Dorothy Neumann, to Cecil Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller of south of Galion, is being made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Neumann of near Galion.

Open church will be observed when the wdeding is solemnized at 2 p.m., Sunday, Aug. 8, in the Peace Lutheran Church.

Miss Neumann is employed at the Wilkins Air Force Depot, Shelby. She was graduated from Galion High School. Her fiance was graduated from Iberia High School and is a student at Ohio State University.

Following a pretty wedding and reception here at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ryan have gone to Waukegan, Ill., where they will make their future home. Mrs. Ryan will teach there during the coming school year.

The ceremony was solemnized in the First Methodist Church. Rev. Philip Lewis, assistant pastor of Christ Methodist Church, Cleveland, a mutual friend of both the bride and bridegroom, performed the service.

The bride is the former Dona Schrecongost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schrecongost. Her wedding dress was street length of Dior blue. It was designed with round neckline and full skirt and she had white accessories. In the bouquet she caried were mixed flowers. The attendants were Mrs. Emil Albu of Canton, and James Ryan. Preceding the vows, Miss Dorothy Plack played a program of organ numbers.

The reception for the wedding party and immediate families and relatives was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride was graduated from Ball Teachers College at Muncie, Ind., and has been engaged in teaching in Indianapolis. Mr. Ryan' sparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan of Anderson, Ind. He was graduated from Indiana University at Bloomington and is assistant chemist at the Abbott Laboratories in North Chicago.

Carey

A lovely mid-summer wedding was solemnized Saturday morning, July 24, at 9:30 in the Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation uniting in marriage Miss Margaret Ellen O'Flaherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Flaherty of Carey and Robert L. Boes, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Boes of Upper Sandusky. Rev. Dennis Herbst, OFMConv., officiated at the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial High Mass. The children's choir sang and John Welsh of Carey rendered several violin selections.

Miss Jean Klosterman of St. Marys, O., served as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Betty Ann O'Flaherty, sister of the bride, and Miss Donna Lucius of Upper Sandusky. Barbara O'Flaherty of Carey and Karen Koepfer of Alvada were flower girls. Serving his brother as best man was Donald Boes of Upper Sandusky. John O'Flaherty of Carey, brother of the bride, and Clarence Boes of Upper Sandusky, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a dinner was served to about 40 guests at Gibbins Restaurant. Serving were Mrs. Ralph Orians, Mrs. Ralph Kirian, Mrs. John Sammet and Miss LaDonna Elchert, friends of the bride. Later a reception was held from 2 to 5 o'clock at the Catholic Hall for about 200 guests. The young couple then left on a week's wedding trip and upon their return will reside at 511 N. Vance St., Carey.

The bride was graduated from Carey High School in 1951 and is employed at Swan Rubber Co as payroll clerk. The bridegroom graduated from Upper Sandusky High School in 1948 and served two years in the U. S. Army. He is now parts manager at the Carey Motor Service Inc.

Bucyrus

A Bucyrus couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Miller, quietly observed their 53rd wedding anniversary at their home here Saturday. A family dinner was held at the home Saturday night.

Mr. Miller is a retired farmer. Mrs. Miller is the former Minnie Linn, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Linn, Holmes Township residents. The Millers have a son, Robert, of near Bucyrus, and a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Honsberger, Oceola, O. There are no grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller of Bucyrus are announcing the engagement of their granddaughter, Mrs. Marilyn J. Radcliff, to Airman First Class James J. Brennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brennen of Syracuse, N. Y. Mrs. Radcliff, an air woman second class, is stationed at Randolph Air Force Base in Texas. Her fiance is stationed overseas at the present time and expects to return to the United States in the early fall.

Mrs. Radcliff is the daughter of George Friend of Los Angeles, Calif., and the late Mrs. Friend. She is a graduate of Bucyrus High School.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Allan Schiefer has been elected president of the Youth Temperance Council at nearby Holmes-Liberty. Paul Schiefer is vice president; Carl Hahn, secretary, and Robert Heinlen, treasurer.

Upper Sandusky

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Smith are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Phyllis Ann to Robert Darwin Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Caldwell of this city.

Miss Smith, a 1954 graduate of Upper Sandusky High School, is presently employed at the Dairy Isle. Mr. Caldwell is a 1952 graduate of the local high school and attended International Business College at Fort Wayne, Ind. He is employed with the Home Federal Savings and Loan Administration, in Marion.

The wedding will be an event of Sept. 4 at 2:30 p.m. in the Trinity Evangelical and Reformed Church here. The custom of open church will be observed.
